ASSIC is now on line

ASSIC's database is available through the Halton Hills Library. In addition to either stopping by or calling ASSIC (Acton Social Services and Information Centre) for information, you can drop by one of the library branches and access the information yourself using one of their public access terminals. If you have a computer and modem at home, you can access the same information by dialing 873-6115 and selecting Community Organizations from the menu.

The database includes information on Halton Hills groups and organizations, government services, self-help-support groups, child care, special interest groups, etc. We also maintain information on services and agencies throughout Halton and surrounding area.

4th Georgetown scouters reunite

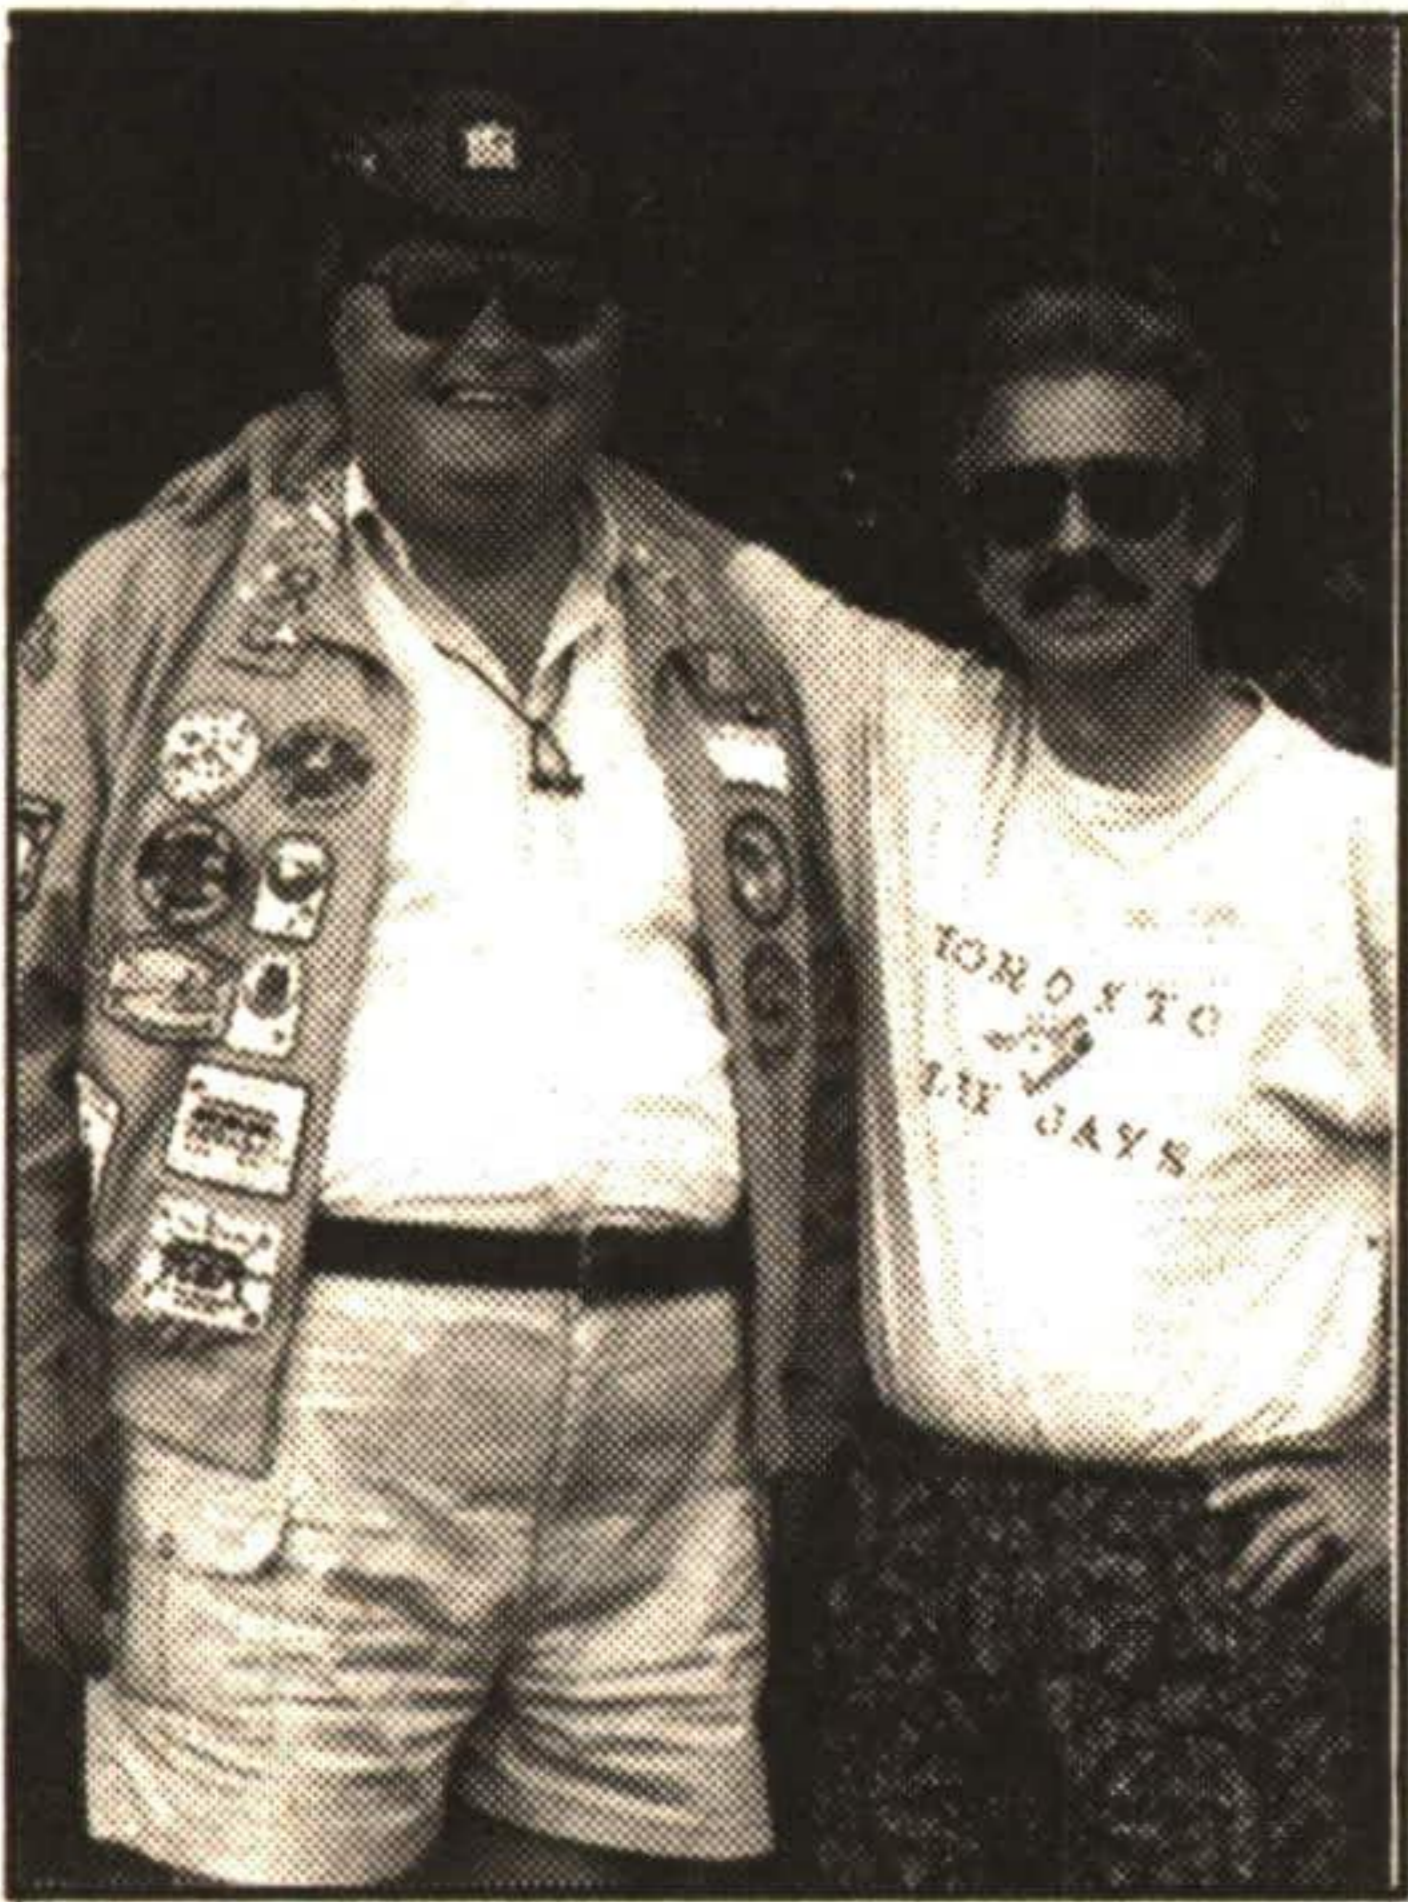

By JEAN LAYMAN

Special to The Independent/Free Press

A celebration barbecue was held Saturday evening, June 10 at St. Andrew's United Church to celebrate 35 years of Scouting.

Randy McGill of the group committee called the large gathering to order and District Commissioner Steve Thompson offered the blessing.

Brian Sheppard from Nova Scotia was introduced and welcomed as well as many past Leaders and Group Committee members. Organizers for this event were Bill Stanzeleit, Randy

BRIAN SHEPPARD and BRUCE KAY

McGill, Linda Burt and all members of 4th Georgetown. Cooks were David Kerr, Brian Lackey, W. Beswick. Linda Burt, secretary of the Group Committee looked after registration, also made the beautiful cake with the Scouting emblem design.

A balloon toss created lots of fun with a couple of scouts getting soaked.

A giant campfire was enjoyed with songs, skits, and cheers.

Randy McGill thanked everyone for their help to make this 35th Anniversary successful. He hopes everyone will return for another celebration in 15 years.
