SHORTS

Second best in tourney

The Glen Williams Emerald Isle squirt girls had a busy five day stretch June 14-18. During that time, Glen Williams took on Rockwood in a regular season game and travelled to a tournament in Arthur.

Against Rockwood, Tara Casson came through with two homers as Glen Williams won easily 13-6. Shannon Mullins added a triple, while Lynette Wilson contributed with fine defence. The battery of pitcher Kim LaFlamme and catcher Megan Baldwin played well.

In tournament action, Glen Williams went up against 10 other squads and behind the strong pitching of Brianna Gabet, LaFlamme and Casson, returned home second. Glen Williams be in Stratford for another tournament July 7 to 9.

Kingston second

The North Halton Golf and Country Club was well represented at last week's Ontario senior championship in Stouffville. Tom Kingston, a club member, had rounds of 74 and 73 to finish in a tie for second, four shots behind the winner.

Still unbeaten

Glen Williams remained unbeaten in atom girls softball play with an 8-4 win over Acton Tylers Tedbits. Natalie Dawkins supplied three innings of no hit pitching for Acton. She was helped out by the base running of Amanda Nielson and the strong efforts of Sarah Berry and Catherine Hynds.

Sharing the honors

Acton Meadows Golf Club Wednesday Night Men's League players were back at it last week. Hugh Forbes and Len Dodds shared low gross honors with 37s, one stroke ahead of Glenn McKenzie and two ahead of Brent Irwin, John Krapek and Urb Van Sendingham. Todd Reid took the low net division with a 30.2. Jim Usatis and Mike Wadden were second with 31.9.

Aquatic Swim Passes

Monthly, three month and yearly passes are valid seven days per week for admission to all scheduled recreational swims at all aquatic facilities.

Outdoor pool opens

The Dick Licata Outdoor Pool will open July 3 to August 28. Public swims are from 2 to 4 p.m. daily. Call the pool for details at 877-1021.

Wading Pool

Did you know that Prospect Park has a heated Wading Pool for youngsters? Only two feet deep at the deepest end, the pool is great for young children to cool off on hot summer days and become comfortable in the water. Operating daily, 1:30-4 p.m., July 3 to August 28. Admission fee is $1 per swimmer.

Alex Peterson led his John Henderson Pro Shop peanut/tyke squad to the Georgetown Gators house league lacrosse title last weekend. Paterson scored four times as the Pro Shop downed Sargent Landscaping 8-3 and Toronto Truck Centre 10-2 to claim the crown.

House league finals

Gators crown champions

The Georgetown Minor Lacrosse Association held their annual Day of Champs June 24.

In the peanut division, John Henderson Pro Shop defeated Sargent Landscaping 8-3 and Toronto Truck Centre 10-2 to claim the championship. In the final, Alex Patterson notched four goals for the champs. Patterson's prowess was complemented by goals from Anthony Murphy (2), Jonathan Fuller (2), Nick Grasby and Ben Reid. Brett Reynolds scored both Toronto Truck Centre goals.

In novice play, Ken's Auto knocked off Autohaus 7-3 and Gray Tool 6-3 to take the title. Adam Kemp led the Ken's Auto charge with two goals in the deciding game. Dan Syvret, Matt Murchison and Peter Sholtz netted the others. Syvret also had three assists. For Gray Tool, it was Jordan Armstrong with two markers and Tim Walinga with a solo.

The Optimists captured the peewee division, making it back-to-back crowns. In their first game, the eventual champs beat the Kinsmen 7-3. They then hammered J.V. Clothing 12-3. Kevin Binsell and Kyle Hall had two goals each in the final. Singles were credited to Chad Mitchell, Chris Henderson, Kyle Fendley, Thomas Stokes and Alex Durham. J.V. Clothing replied with goals by Ryan Busby, Sean Cryer and Sean Reynolds.

The bantam division then seized the spotlight with the title game between George & Dragon and the Legion. Both teams had defeated Apple Auto Glass to set up the final. George & Dragon squeaked out the 1-0 victory on a goal by Dave Gibbons. Jason Armstrong and Simon Saulnier assisted on the game-winner.

The Georgetown Gators Minor Lacrosse Association would like to thank all of their sponsors.

Ken's Auto nipped their rivals to claim the Georgetown Gators novice division crown. Ken's topped Autohaus 6-3 and Gray Tool 7-3 for championship honors. Adam Kemp scored two for Ken's in the deciding contest.

Local ladies continue ball battles

The Georgetown Powderpuff League ladies were at it again June 12-16.

Bases Loaded overwhelmed Utter Chaos 31-14. Bases Loaded was led by Jane Peterson (HR, 6 RBI), Diane Moore (triple, 4 RBI), Diane Richardson (double), Debbie Holloway (triple) and Tina Daquino (triple).

Brat Pack nipped Aqua Bats 10-8. Bev Heinz homered for the Bats, while teammate Sharon Zmija doubled. For the Brats, it was Bernice Griffith with a two-bagger.

Greys Under Pressure steamrolled over Black Magic 16-9. Despite the loss, Black Magic had a quintet of doubles — two each by Betty Fendley and Chris Stoyles and one by Lynda Hesselink. Fendley also tripled.

Lettuce Win and More Gray Hares finished up in an 11-11 draw. Jennifer Reynolds homered and Linda Anderson and Karen Morrow doubled to lead the Hares. Lettuce Win received strong performances from Fiona Flint (double), Rose Harris (2 doubles, 2 RBI), Tracey Morey (double), Kim Vienneau (double), Toni Quinn (double), Carol Spiteri (double, 6 K), Cindy Bodrug (steal), Pat Morey (strong pitching, good defence) and Jennifer Gibson (2 RBI, good defence).

Dream Team overcame some terrific Tickle The Ivories defence to prevail 13-6.

Red Dogs were dumped 16-12 by Ask-Em. Annette Vandyke and Jennifer Bottomley both homered for the Dogs, while Paulette Friolett (2), Michelle Shannon (2) and Michelle Hiltz doubled for Ask-Em.

Base Invaders thumped Burgandy Bulldogs 16-8. Melanie Hewson shone brightest for the Invaders. Hewson homered, doubled twice and drove in two runs. She received help from Lorraine Capreol (double), Susan Wilson (2 RBI) and Laurie Crozier (2 RBI).

Red Dogs took a bite out of the Dream Team with a 19-13 win. Jennifer Bottomley tripled for the victorious Dogs.

Black Magic cranked out six extra-base hits to beat Brat Pack 16-13. Chris Stoyles homered and doubled, Linda McClure homered and tripled, Heldn Nelson tripled and Linda Dutkowski doubled for the winning cause.

In results from previous weeks, Brat Pack humiliated Lettuce Win 23-1, Ask-Em beat Utter Chaos 10-6, Bases Loaded dumped Aqua Bats 9-4, Dream Team edged Base Invaders 13-12, Black Magic triumphed over Burgandy Bulldogs 16-15 and Gray's Under Pressure overpowered Tickle The Ivories 15-9.
