"In our paint area we will have a computerized color matching system. A customer can bring in a fabric swatch or even a broccoli and we will be able to accurately match the color from it," said Craig.

Customers will also be able to bring in samples of their pool water for testing so staff can advise them on what they need. Hunting and fishing licences will be offered at the store as well.

Other new items include pet food, indoor plants, CDs, audio and video tapes, personal security alarms and licensed sporting goods.

"Our car repair area has been expanded from six to ten bays. We have dedicated tire and oil and lube bays and a proper waiting area for customers," said Craig.

A computer in the automotive section will allow customers to look up the part they require and find out where it is located in the

The number of staff at the new store has doubled to about 100 from the previous location.

"We spent a great deal of time and money to ensure we have a good team. Now we are investing in the team to ensure staff members are trained properly," said Craig. She added Canadian Tire is proud of the relationship the company has with its employees in terms of remuneration, benefits and profit sharing.

The store is owned by Tomas Kase, who took over Canadian Tire in Georgetown in

"He has taken the store a long way in a short period of time," said Craig. She said he has an innovative way of looking at things and seeing the store through the eyes of his customers.

The setup crew at the new Georgetown Canadian Tire store has been busy over the past weeks readying for the opening Thursday morning. The new store, located at 315 Guelph St., is nearly three times as large as the current location and will carry more than 40,000 items.
