Girls under 15

Georgetown Team #2 swamped Georgetown Team #3 Becky Leferink scored four and Stephanie Lefebre hit the net for two while Toni Hesselink potted one. Jenna Colthart and Jenn Westman shared the keeper's position for the winning side and kept out all the Team #3 shots except two - one by Alyssa Taylor and another by Amanda Campbell.

Georgetown Team #3 had an unlucky week as they lost 5-3 to Team #1. In a slow moving game, after a Grade 8 graduation night, the teams played back and forth with each side matching the other's goals. Kristin Boyle and Erica Tickle each scored for Team #1 then Marlina Santos scored for the other side. Cindy Benner shot another in for Team #1 before half time. In the second half, Team #3 was fired up and Alyssa Taylor, with a good pass from Jenn Robertson, netted one. Erica Tickle scored again for Team #1 on a rebound but Alyssa Taylor matched her one for Team #3 after a breakaway. Team #1 forward Kristina Zelek beat the goalie one more time to put the game out of reach for Team #3. Goalkeepers for both teams were busy with near misses. Team #1 were Faith Malinosky and Julie Pennycook while the other side fielded Annie Parent and Rebecca Gipp.

Georgetown Team #1 won over Bolton #2 with 6-1 score, and over Brampton 5-1.

Girls under 17

Georgetown Wheels Driver Training lost a heartbreaker 2-1 to Brampton. Strong defensive play in the first half by Jenn Shields and midfielders Jenny Barclay changed to offense after Brampton booted one in. Twenty minutes into the second half, Georgetown's Nikki Davies curved one on the ground into the far corner of the net. Intense play continued with forwards Kathy Irvine and Meredith Sones carrying the ball to the Brampton net.

A second game against a second Brampton team was a kicking game with Wheels Driver Training earning a shut out with a 1-0 score. Jenn Royce booted a big one after a great run and the winning goal was on the Georgetown side.
