

Sail boat rides at Fairy Lake

By LISA TALLYN
Staff writer

Beginning later this summer a Toronto man plans to offer free sail boat rides around Fairy Lake for people with disabilities.

"I'm lucky, I guess you could call it a payback," said Jack Hernick as an explanation for why he will be providing the sailing outings.

Hernick, 73, who lives in Toronto, but also owns a standardbred horse farm in Brampton, has been sailing for 20 years. He is semi-retired from the automotive industry and spends most days on his farm.

He said the 5,000 lb

catboat, which he used to sail in the Atlantic Ocean, is a replica of the Herreshoff America, a gas rigged catboat that was used back in the late 1800s for fishing lobster beds in Long Island Sound.

Hernick sailed his boat in Florida for about 16 years, then brought it back home and has sailed it in Lake Ontario and Belwood Lake.

In the past he offered free sailing outings at Belwood Lake for special needs people and the service was well received.

Hernick was looking for a place closer to his farm, where his boat is stored, to sail from. When he discovered Acton had a lake he decided that would be the perfect location.

He hopes to be able to moor his boat in the lake throughout the summer and take a physically challenged person and an escort out for a half-hour sail on a pre-arranged basis.

Hernick said he will have to be selective about those who sail with them, as they must be able to fend for themselves in case they fall in the water.

At a recent meeting council authorized the mayor and town clerk to enter into an agreement with Hernick for the mooring and operation of the boat in the lake.
