We're Closing Shop...

Dan & Liz Kociuk of Halton Hills Collision wish to thank the many clients and friends they have encountered over the last 22 years in business.

We have repaired some strange collision jobs, the strangest being a parked car on Mill St., Acton being hit by a house (portable school). How about a car rolling over, the only injury being 2 lemon meringue pies sitting on the back seat (sooo messy). The economy & high overhead has and still is closing many businesses and we're no exception.

I probably will still be around in the trade somewhere and if you wish to know where, possibly ask your agent, and I would be happy to see you and look after your needs.

Thank you very much again and as Red Green would say:

"Keep you stick on the ice."
