Minor injuries

A 19-year-old Oakville woman was charged with careless driving after this accident at Trafalgar Road and Maple Avenue last Sunday (July 16). Police report a 4-door, blue 1991 Hyundai skidded into the rear of a 2-door, black 1989 Ford waiting at a red light on Trafalgar. The driver of the Hyundai and a 19-year-old female passenger from Oakville were taken by ambulance to Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital with minor injuries. The driver of the Ford drove herself to hospital, also with minor injuries. All three were treated and released. The Hyundai sustained severe damage, while the Ford sustained moderate damage.

Police Blotter

Jewelry stolen
Police report jewelry valued at $3,400 was taken from a Currie Crescent home sometime between 6:30 and 10:30 a.m., July 13. There were no signs of forced entry into the home, which was being painted at the time and had open windows and doors, police said. The jewelry was taken from the master bedroom.

Tent stolen
A red and white, 3-person tent was stolen from the backyard of a Webster Way residence between midnight and 6:30 a.m., July 15, police say. The tent is valued at $40.

Car radio stolen
Police report a digital cassette radio was stolen from a 1985 Dodge Lancer parked on Queen Street, Georgetown, between 5 and 9:30 a.m., July 19. The radio is worth $250. Sometime between July 16-17, an Alpine stereo cassette radio was stolen from a 1983 Buick parked on Duby Road in Acton, police report. The stereo is valued at $200.

Caught in the act
Police are investigating an attempted vehicle theft in Acton. At approximately 4:45 a.m., July 20, a Churchill Road North resident awoke after hearing noises.

According to police, she looked out her window and saw someone rolling her car down a driveway while attempting to start it. Her father went out and chased the suspect onto Acton High School property.

The suspect disappeared, but is described as being a white male, 16-17 years of age, standing 5-foot-6, weighing 130 pounds with a slim build and wearing black baggy pants, a black T-shirt and a black ball cap.
