St. Xavier included on compilation CD

Legend Records, a Hamilton-based independent company, is including a local rock band's song on their CD compilation release. In fact, the song, Blown Away, will be the compilation album's title.

The local band is St. Xavier, a rising star on the club circuit. The four-member band will working new material for their first full length album. On July 28, they will be at the Hardball Cafe, on Hwy 25, just north of Milton, sharing the bill with The Headstones.

Tom Schenk of the Georgetown Choral Society displays some of the souvenirs brought back from the choir's trip to Europe for the VE Day celebrations. Schenk is holding a wooden shoe with a bottle of Liberation wine given to the choir by the Etnens Male Choir in Holland, a plate from the Huddersfield Methodist Choir and a painting of the Hereford Cathedral, a gift from the Hereford Police Choir. The Georgetown choir performed in Holland, England and Germany during their trip.

MEDICATIONS CAN BE DANGEROUS TO YOUR HEARING!!

Ototoxicity is the term for medication that can be hazardous to your hearing health. If you presently take medication, be sure to ask your physician about possible effects on your hearing. Keep in mind that combinations of prescriptions increase the risk of ototoxicity. If you suspect your medication could be ototoxic, or develop a ringing in your ears, call your physician and report this.
