Valdi Foods reopens Monday

Valdi Foods which closed earlier this year due to bankruptcy will open its doors again at 9 a.m. on Monday.

The Georgetown store at 7 Mountainview Rd. N, is one of seven Valdi stores to reopen that day.

A group of former Valdi managers recently purchased the Valdi name and individually bought stores which had been profitable.

Silvio Cicchini, the owner of the Georgetown store, said the new store will provide shoppers with 600 items every week priced the same or lower than the competition.

Cicchini said "in and out deals" will be featured weekly providing a variety of products at bargain prices.

"The store is cleaner than it was, repainted and we have installed scanners." The scanners provide customers with receipts specifying each item and cost, and a display terminal.

"I am looking forward to meeting the customers and serving them the best I possibly can. Our main focus is to satisfy the customers. We would appreciate hearing any comments they may have."

On opening day customers will have the chance to win prizes provided by several suppliers.

The store will be open Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m., Thursday and Friday from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., Saturday from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Sunday from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.
