A visit to the past

Last Monday was almost a return to several years ago.

At Meadowglen the ladies league had Georgetown's McGibbon reds versus CRSC United. Several players came from the former youth competitive team I coached. The girls are now mothers, or some of them, and it was good to meet up with them again. The game was close and played in a good spirit although remaining competitive.

Another touch to the past was former Mariner and original Youth Club founder member, Bob Marshall in the middle, refereeing. He had to eject one player for a dangerously illegal tackle and remarks to the official. Otherwise the game passed without incident.

Without incident may also be applied to the Blazers/Mariners game on Wednesday in the Inter County league. The return match was played in more orderly fashion this time around compared to the earlier game a few weeks ago, which was abandoned by the game official due to a player melee. Blazers, with less of the play, pulled off a late 2-1 win, the winning goal coming after Mariners missed a penalty kick award.

Eagles went to Meteor and scored an early goal from a corner kick set piece and this set the visitors on their way to a convincing 4-0 win in the end. Eagles hold onto second place following the result. Forest lost 1-2 to leaders, Caledon. The game was settled on a penalty kick late in the game. As I recall, this is one of the few times that Caledon has defeated the Forest (or even as formerly named Falcons) in their time. Other results saw Meadowvale lose to PRPA for the second time in a week, and Merseyside took out Winchester by 4-2.

In the second division, Lions dropped a point and still remain top of the section due to United's game with Villa unplayed owing to lights failure at Alcott. Local teams Ajax and Milton met and Milton came out winners by 3-2. The win takes Milton off the bottom place, where they have been for a few weeks past. Just below Milton are Ajax, with Stingers at the foot of the table. United keep second place and are one point ahead of Britannia, with a game in hand. Villa drop to fourth place due to the unplayed match and they have a couple of games to make up.

Georgetown team #2 was only able to field 7 players when they traveled to Bolton to play a fully packed Bolton team. Players Rebecca Leferink, Lisa Westerveld, Laura Bowman, Toni Hesselink-Wyga, Deidre Edwards, Allie Barclay and Jennifer Westman made Bolton work for their 5-0 win.

There were no injuries from a game at Alcott field although the game was played slowly to lessen the danger of slipping due to lack of grass. After 13 minutes of play, the lights went out and this incident slowed the game down as well. Georgetown Team #1 earned a shut out playing versus Georgetown team #3. Sarah Williams played an excellent defence for team #3, clearing the ball to half and team #3 goalies Amanda Campbell and Annie Parent kept out all but three of the team #1 balls. Faith Malinovsky earned the shut out for team #1. Scoring for team #1 were Kristina Zelek, and Kathryn Purdue assisted by Claire Byrne.

Georgetown team #2 had a tough fight against the second Bolton team #2 when they hosted the Bolton girls on a scorched yellow Alcott field with only 9 players. Goalies Toni Hesselink-Wyga and Shannon Rypstra gained the shut out with a little help from their team mates Deidre Edwards, Milly Perry, Laura Bowman and Lisa Westerveld. Becky Leferink shot the winning goal late in the second half for the 1-0 score.

Girls under 17

After a torrential rain that left a gigantic puddle in front of the goalies' net, Wheels Driver Training under 17 girls' soccer team ran up against a Milton team that had all 11 players. The small but mighty 7 players from Georgetown gave Milton, the top team in the league, a really hard time as they all struggled to earn goals. Jenn Royce booted a singleton from midfield for Georgetown while Kathy Irvine and Jen Shields were close but shots bounced off the goal posts or the goalie. The score of 3-1 would have been higher except for the great saves of goalie Davina Taylor and Angie Zmija.

Georgetown's Jill Gordon chipped in the last shot past the defence to tie the game when the Wheels Driver Training Girls under 17 team played the North Mississauga team #2. Meredith Sones did a slide on the side for another and Angie Zmija headed one to Kathy Irvine who sailed the ball into the far right corner of the Mississauga net. Georgetown defence Branwen Williams saved one from in front of the net when Davina Taylor, the goalie, was caught out. Playing goal for the first half was Nikki Davies who was kept busy by the opposition who held the game to a 3-3 tie.

Ladies

The Georgetown M and M Pro Sports ladies soccer team took its act on the road Monday night and the reviews were all positive as the local ladies clobbered Chinguacousy 5-1.

Georgetown opened up a 3-0 first-half lead on two goals by Sheri Nairn and a single by Becky Dobbin. The domination continued in the second half with Nairn potting her third and Fiona Allan her first.

In addition to the goal scorers, Georgetown's Melanie Remes, Tara Burroughs, Kathy Billard and Taysha Brankiewicz played well.
