Under 13 Georgetown Girls Selects came second in their division after winning 2 games with only 1 loss at a tourney in Brampton.

The first game was a 1-0 win over Brampton Selects with Alanna Zelek scoring the winning goal from a corner kick.

The second game was tied at the half and then the Georgetown defense line let a N.E. London player too close to the net and she booted one in for the final score of 2-1. Georgetown's scorer was Sinead Irvine with a tip-in on a cross from Jacquie Bajic.

The last game against Milton was offensive for the first half with Alanna Zelek scoring from midfield. Defense Krystal Westman and Bethan Elliot cleared the Milton shots well. Alyssa Taylor shot one to the inside post on a penalty kick from a handball in the 18 yard box. In the last half, the Milton team pressed hard for a score and netted one on a penalty kick but goalie Heather Stevens made great saves for the final score of 2-1.

In the semifinals, the Georgetown Selects played Etobicoke All-Stars with Alyssa Taylor scoring for Georgetown on a penalty kick. The final score was 2-1 for Etobicoke. Heather Stevens played well in goal and noteworthy players were Kathryn Weston and Jacqueline Mousseau. Winning a division for the first time was exciting, according to coaches Ed Weston and Lindsey Baines.

Girls under 15

Georgetown Team #3 traveled to Bolton only to be outscored by the Bolton team for another loss. Goalies Amanda Campbell and Marlina Santos kept many balls out but the only Georgetown score was a header past the goalie by Alyssa Taylor in the first half. Noteworthy were Annie Parent and Jenn Fuller.

Caledon is in first place in the league and despite great efforts by the 9 players on Georgetown Team #2, they were thrown for a 3-0 loss. Without a full complement of players, Georgetown tired quickly to the controlling Caledon team. Playing well defensively were Stephanie Lefebvre, Paula Gougeon, and Jenn Westman.

Girls under 17

It was a good week for Bolton as the Moradini Sales team won 3-0 over the Wheels Driver Training Georgetown team. A penalty kick that hit the crossbar and fell straight down into the net was the beginning for Bolton. Forwards Kathy Irvine, Meredith Sones and Jill Gordon booted shots that were saved and sweeper Jenn Royce was kept busy in the back field.

Girls under 15

North Peel-Halton girls soccer team playing in the Brampton tournament pushed through successfully to the semifinals with 2 wins, a tie and a loss. Thanks to Coach Roger Roy, the girls had a tent as protection from the hot sun as they played 4 games in rapid succession.

Oakville Allstars scored from a midfield kick but Aja Dunlop netted one after a pass from Acton's Colleen Thompson. A second Oakville shot just under the crossbar put the game out of reach at 2-1.

The North Peel-Halton midfield came to life in the second game with Sharleen Ramon and Jaclyn Nelson moving the ball well to the forwards Christina Chivilliotti, and Stephanie Mancini. Defense Rachel Skinner and Georgetown's Shannon Rypstra covered the net well. Defense Allison Kenny dinked a brilliant shot from midfield on a free kick from a pushing penalty and the score stood at 1-0.

Brampton Selects were outplayed in the third game with Erin's Bridget Milligan scoring two, one on a pass from Aja Dunlop and Aja then scoring another on a breakaway to cross to the back of the net. Erin Craighead played the wings well. Brampton scored their singleton in the last 5 minutes for 3-1 score.

In game #4, Aja Dunlop almost scored on a pass from Sarah Valiquette but Port Colborne had a strong goalie. Defense Ivana Denovellis and Andrea Grzyrowski covered Georgetown's goalie Davina Taylor as she kicked out a plethora of shots. The final score was a 0-0 tie.

In the semi-finals, the North Peel-Halton girls faced the Port Colborne team again. A midmorning game saw a tight score but the offensive line was slower than the opposition who were first to the ball and won the right to the finals with the score of 2-1 in overtime.

Aja Dunlop scored first for North Halton-Peel, but Port Colborne bounced one off the cross bar to win.
