

Learn to Read the Bible Effectively

Attend this Seminar and learn to read the Bible effectively!

If you find reading the Bible difficult or frustrating at times, then this seminar is for you. Six concise and informative sessions are delivered in a friendly, comfortable environment. They are aimed at equipping you with the skills and determination to understand scriptural doctrines for yourself and benefit from a new appreciation of the Bible. Whether you are familiar with the Bible or are new to reading it, you will walk away with loads of information and new energy to begin reading more effectively.

Here's a Sample of what you will learn...

- Who wrote the Bible - where did it come from?
- How to remove the "mystery" which many religions cast about the Bible.
- How to use cross references.
- An overview of each book of the Bible in a concise easy to understand manner.
- History and chronology (the order of events) in the Bible.
- 3 tips to letting the Bible interpret the Bible.
- Prove for yourself the Bible is not a work of fiction.
- When an understanding of Greek and Hebrew can help.
- Who are the Jews? Why are they so important in the Bible?
- Why quoting a single scripture is dangerous (how to keep passages in context).
- Why the Bible is intentionally difficult to understand in parts and how it can be simplified.
- How did so many interpretations of the Bible develop?
- When and how to gain an understanding of the book of Revelation.
- Why does God allow so much suffering and wickedness?
- How the Bible deals with the age old question: Is man good or evil?
- A simple Bible reading plan to get you through the whole Bible in a year.

8 Reasons why you should attend...

1. No obligation. No one will attempt to "convert" or "save you".
2. FREE. You will never be asked for money to purchase materials or to make donations of any kind (and we mean never!)
3. Make your Bible study more productive with less time. You will understand more and know where to look to keep it moving at an enjoyable pace.
4. If you claim to believe in God, you are obligated to understand for yourself His purposes for man. Jesus himself said "Have ye not read...?"
5. No one will ever call you on the phone or in person.
6. Quit at any time. If you ever find the program inadequate, you may quit with no strings attached.
7. Learn and fine tune skills which will allow you to read the Bible with a better understanding than before. Many people desire to learn but initial frustration discourages and hinders progress.
8. Everyone attending receives extensive free materials including a 3-ring binder of class outlines to keep your own notes. The handouts will also allow you to review material at your own pace between classes.

Questions Others Have Asked...

- Q. What if everyone there knows more than I do?
A. The classes are paced in such a way as to make every one feel comfortable. No one is ever put "on the spot." Teaching segments are alternated between assumed knowledge and those requiring no previous knowledge of the scriptures.
- Q. Who is paying for the seminars?
A. An extremely important question, as very few things today are free. All expenses are being absorbed by the Christadelphians in the area. No financial expectations will ever be expressed to you, now or in the future.
- Q. Will I be asked to be "saved" or "join" the Christadelphians at the end of the lecture?
A. No! You will not be pressured during or at the completion of the classes. Our hope is that the classes will encourage you to draw your own conclusions about God and His plan. The purpose of these classes is to equip you with necessary tools to make your own decisions about what you have learned.
- Q. Why are you doing this?
A. Scarcely is the Bible read in today's fast paced lifestyles. Our faith and belief in God propels us to expound His message and Truth. We believe the Bible and what it teaches, is right and good in directing our lives and families. In Christ's day, the apostles spread the Gospel message and we also feel compelled to make known to all, the wonderful plan God has for the earth.

About the Presenters:

Wayne Coutu and Chris Sales are experienced teachers. They have taught classes throughout Ontario, and maintain a commitment to weekly Bible studies and efforts to increase Bible literacy. Their shared love of the Bible and their warm and personable manner is blended with a lively and enjoyable presentation style.

About the Christadelphians:

Christadelphians adopted their name in the mid 1800's. The name is intended to cover three words, "Brethren in Christ". Christadelphians are to be found in countries all over the world. They are bound together by a common faith in the Gospel preached by Christ and his apostles in the first century. It was this faith and its appeal to men and women from all walks of life which brought the community into existence.

Christadelphians do not believe that any of their members, past or present, have received any special revelation direct from God. The Christadelphian faith rests squarely and solely on the Bible as the inspired Word of God.
