Intercounty squads in playoff battles

The Inter county playoffs began last week.

Both the first and second division are divided into two groups based upon the league standings after the last league games played to the mid-August cut off date.

Caledon lead their section with an opening default win over PRPA. Meteor defeated Blazers 3-0 in a match with a little controversy.

Blazers have indicated a protest may follow.

Eagles took out Meadowvale 3-1, also with a problem or two in the game. Forest went to Merseyside and left with the points in a 3-0 win. Mariners fell apart with injuries and lost six goals to Winchester whilst scoring one.

A Blazer's player was ejected for violent conduct, according to the referee.

The player refused to leave the field at first then took his time in leaving, all the time directing comments to the official, which continued through the rest of the game. Another Blazer defender was ejected later in the second half for a deliberate handball offence, preventing a goal.

At the same time there is a question on the eligibility of game sheet by the Meteor bench, which is the subject of the possible protest.

Meteor were ahead by three goals when Blazers went down to nine players. However, Blazers kept at the home team and were rewarded by two goals, just not enough to take a result in their favor.

Meanwhile an Eagle and a Meadowvale player were given their marching orders in their contest which result went to Eagles. The only other discipline moments were cautions to a Forest and a Mariner player for minor offences.

In second division encounters Britannia and Villa each had a violent conduct ejection with Harps and Milton each receiving a player caution.

League winners, Lions, lost their first match of the season, at home to United. United turned on a display to win by 2-0 and kept Lions from scoring opportunities. Ajax turned in performance of the season in winning 5-0 over Stingers, with a hat trick of goals from one player.

In the clash of top league standing teams, Villa lost to visiting Britannia by 1-2. There will be a repeat encounter, of a final league game, between these two yet to come. Milton defeated Harps by 4-2 to show credit for recent good showings without the same success. In the other game North Mississauga defeated SHL 3-2, a good result for SHL.

This past Wednesday, in town, Blazers vs Forest at Cedarvale at 8:45 p.m.; Eagles vs Merseyside at Alcott at 7 p.m.; United vs Stingers at 6:30 p.m. at Meadowglen and Ajax vs Villa at Alcott at 8:45 p.m. Other games saw Meteor at Caledon, Mariners at Meadowvale, Milton host SHL and the others are inter-Streetville/Brampton team games.
