

Marital woes? Seminars try to help

Alice Smith is Campbellville's mayor

The Lions Club of Campbellville has appointed Alice Smith as the new honorary mayor of Campbellville. A longtime resident, Alice was chosen for her many contributions to the community. As honorary mayor, Alice is responsible for goodwill, and will represent Campbellville in the annual Santa Claus Parade. The out-going mayor is Len Andrews.

Separated of divorced? More than 600 men and women find it easier to cope with new and trusting friends at Seminars On Separation.

Separated Anonymous, a non-profit group, will be putting on 14 weekly sessions beginning October 5 and running to December 14.

There will be expert professionals giving presentations on many issues of importance to anyone going through separation.

Keynote addresses include Dr. Karen Kaffka, a York University professor will speak on Intimacy and Sexuality. Family therapist, Elliott Larman, discusses Parenting, Step-Parenting and Grand-Parenting. Larman is a step-child himself. Ava Walters Cout, a Streetsville therapist, gives a description of a "Healthy" Relationship and how to achieve it. David Whealy, executive director of Separated Anonymous will discuss How to Grow Through Separation and There is Life After Separation.

The seminars include a course, Rebuilding When Your Relationship Ends, which provides specific reading material and a clear step-by-step path for growth.

After seminar participants get to know and trust one another there will be several carefully chosen safe social events. Every group that has attended the seminars has continued to meet together for some time after the seminars end, some groups for over a year.

The seminars are held at the Peace Lutheran Church, inside Mississauga's Sqaure One. There is no religious base or bias with this program; it just rents the church's space.
