Classical music series begins 10th season

Milton Concert Productions is a non-profit group of volunteers which works to bring live, classical music concerts to area music lovers. This season's first concert, on October 13, will mark the beginning of the tenth anniversary of the Nocturne series in Milton and will feature one of the most prominent pianists in North America today, Anton Kubalek, with the North York Symphony Orchestra conducted by Maestro Kerry Stratton.

This symphonic birthday celebration will be held at the Milton Baptist Church on Nipissing Road at Thompson Rd. in Milton and will also feature a birthday cake and other goodies during intermission.

To launch this 10th anniversary season Milton Concert Productions will have a table at the Milton Farmer's Market on September 30 and Kerry Stratton will be present.

Other concert productions:

November 24 — The North York Woodwind Quintet. February 2 — "String's The Thing" Great Serenades for String Orchestra, Conductor Kerry Stratton and the North York Sinfonia.

April 19 — Bonus Concert, The Lyric Harp an evening with Harp, Flute and Strings.

All concerts are at the Milton Baptist Church. Tickets can be obtained at the door or in advance by calling Jim, 878-7397.

Happy 50th Anniversary on October 2, 1995 Harm & Theresa Koeslag will celebrate their 50th Wedding Anniversary.

Congratulations Mom & Dad
