Lottery win

Georgetown resident Andrea Evans is $85,000 richer thanks to a Lotto 649 ticket she purchased in Burlington earlier this month.

The 25-year-old won second prize in the Oct. 7 draw with numbers she picked at random.

Evans, a special project manager with The Service Excellence Group Inc. of Georgetown, plans to use some of her windfall to pay off her debt and take a vacation with her mom.

She intends to invest what she has left.

Charged with arson

A 13-year old Georgetown boy was charged with arson Friday morning after a fire caused $30,000 damage to a video store on Mountainview Rd.

Firefighters were called to the fire at 8:07 a.m. and were on the scene for about an hour and a half.

The fire started in the video drop box and caused heavy smoke and fire damage to the store, but didn't spread to other units of the building, fire officials said.

Trio sought

A 16-year old Georgetown youth was accosted by three older youths in Georgetown Marketplace Mall Tuesday at 9 p.m. and his black leather jacket was stolen.

Police said one of the the culprits is described as being 18-19 years old, over six ft. tall, and had short brown hair, a heavy build. Another member of the trio was female. They left in a grey Buick.

Searching for the perfect pumpkin

Dave Cavasin, 7 (right) and his brother Scott, 9, dropped by the Cote residence in Limehouse recently to pick out their Halloween pumpkins from the unique display on the front lawn. Hundreds of pumpkins grace the lawn, under the watchful eye of a mysterious looking fellow, giving the house a bright orange glow in preparation for the spooks and goblins that will soon be out in full force. ## Voters set to elect new trustee

Monday will be decision day for Wards 1 and 2 residents as they head to polls to choose their new Halton School board trustee.

Eight area residents are vying for the position which was vacated earlier this year by Dave Whiting. In the running for the job are: Gary Crosbie, Ethel Gardiner, Jake Kuiken, Susan McPhail Job, John Morton, Ron Nelson, Elly Tuitman and Ria Wilson.

The 19 polling stations in the wards open at 10 a.m. and close at 8 p.m. Two advance polls were held last Saturday and Wednesday.

Qualified voters who did not receive their voter notification cards in the mail are likely not on the voters list. To be eligible to vote they can visit the Clerk's department at the Civic Centre to have their name added to the list or be sworn in at their poll.

Identification may be requested, a tax bill usually serves the purpose. Electors who aren't certain which polling station they are to vote at should call the Clerk's office at 873-2600.

Polling station 5 will be located in the Ballinafad United Church basement, 6 and 7 will be in Glen Williams Town Hall, 8 and 9 at Limehouse Public School, 10, 11 and 12 at M.Z. Bennett Public School, 13 at Norval Community Centre, 14 and 15 at Pineview Public School, 16, 17 and 18 at Robert Little Public School, 19, 20 and 21 at the Royal Canadian Legion in Acton and 22 and 23 at Stewarttown Public School.

Election night results as they come in will be posted on a screen in the council chambers at the Civic Centre beginning shortly after the polls close.

For those who want to view the results from their own home, Cable Four will superimpose the updated results over its regular programming. Final results will be included in the public service announcement messages.
