

SALUTE TO

FAMILY BUSINESS

Kim, Dylan and Paul Auty

GEORGETOWN CHRYSLER JEEP (1993) LTD.

336 GUELPH ST., GEORGETOWN
877-0149 877-5108 TOR. 874-4277

Paul and Kim Auty took over Georgetown Chrysler just before Dylan took over their lives in April 1993.

Their son Dylan, now two years old, has climbed the corporate ladder. He has given up his role as elevator operator at the Sands Condominium to assume the title of junior vice president at the Guelph St. dealership.

Dylan's duties include monitoring the level of the jelly bean dispenser in the service department. While Kim works full-time outside of the dealership, she still finds the time to coordinate special events such as the successful "Test Our Metal" promotion which was held recently.

Although Paul's official title is dealer principal, he claims steering

Climbing the ladder at Georgetown Chrysler

the ship is easy due to the caring and professional group of individuals he has working with him.

Paul says, "great chemistry is crucial to the success of any business. I was fortunate to inherit such a fine nucleus of talent. Our family extends beyond blood relations. You'll notice when you walk in the door."

Chris and Dustin Boreland

BORELAND'S SCHOOL OF KARATE
(905) 873-9489
150 Armstrong Ave., #9, Georgetown
Behind Home Hardware - Guelph St.

Boreland's School of Karate is a family business which just became full-time last spring.

Pam and Chris Boreland operate the school and their 10-year-old son Dustin, who has his black belt, helps teach some of the classes. Chris started karate when he was 11 years old and received his black belt when he was 16 years old. Dustin is the youngest student ever to receive his black belt in Shorin-Ryu karate, a very traditional form of karate, taught at the school.

The school specializes in teaching children and offers classes every evening and on Saturdays. Children can start karate when they are 4 years old.

Full-time business for Boreland family

Dustin helps with the 4 to 8 year olds, but can also help the 9 to 14 year olds and adult classes, said his mother Pam, who has a green belt in karate. She doesn't teach it but helps with self defense classes.

The school has been operating for four years. Anyone interested in finding out about the exciting classes can call 873-9489.

Karen and Bill McEachern

McEACHERN STEERING SPECIALTIES INC.

33 Armstrong Ave., Georgetown
877-9411

McEachern Steering Specialties Inc. involves three members of the McEachern family.

Bill, the owner of the shop at 33 Armstrong Ave. in Georgetown, has been a licensed mechanic for nearly 30 years.

His wife Karen works as the bookkeeper and their son David has recently joined the staff as an apprentice mechanic.

The family has lived in Georgetown for 17 years. Daughter Julie and husband Kyle Edwards also live in town.

"We specialize in steering, suspension, alignment, brakes and wheel balances," says McEachern.

They do work on front, rear and all wheel drive cars, trucks and cube vans.

"We also do on vehicle high speed

Family affair at McEachern Steering

wheel balances."

McEachern explains a vehicle usually needs a wheel balance if there is a vibration and an alignment if there is tire wear and poor steering.

Customers from all over including two from Phoenix, Arizona who stop in for an alignment when they are in town. The shop is open Monday to Friday 7 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Andrea and John Schiralli

Prince of Wales Country Market Inc.
2548 Embleton Rd., Huttonville
(905) 455-8136

The Prince of Wales Country Market in Huttonville is a true family operation. John Schiralli purchased the Prince of Wales on Danforth Ave. in Toronto 36 years ago after having worked there as a stockboy. Two years ago the Schirallis opened their Huttonville location on Embleton Rd.

The whole family is involved in the operation of the stores including

John's wife Carmella, daughter Andrea, and sons John and Dino.

When they purchased the Huttonville market they did extensive renovations.

The market features fresh local and Ontario grown fruits and vegetables, homemade baked goods including fruit, cream and meat pies, and deli and cheese items.

The store's grocery section

Prince of Wales Market a true family business

features several gourmet items. "We provide personalized service. If we don't have something we are happy to place an order for it," said Andrea.

In the spring and summer the market has a wide variety of annual and perennials in the garden centre.

Prince of Wales Country Market is open seven days a week from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Kelly and Alex Trenton

The DENTURE CLINIC
Alex Trenton, Denture Therapist

(905) 877-2359
18 Church St.,
Georgetown

Alex and Kelly Trenton have owned and operated 'The Denture Clinic' in Georgetown for more than 13 years.

Alex is the author of the weekly newspaper article, 'Tooth Chatter', which aims to inform the public about various denture related issues.

Alex, a dentist, offers complete denture/partial services, including new dentures, relines and emergency repairs.

All work is done on the premises by Alex in his fully equipped lab. You do not need a referral, simply call the office direct.

Kelly, a nurse, took an active interest in her husband's practice shortly after they were married. She continues to be involved in all aspects of his clinic, including book keeping, reception and public awareness.

Family affair at Denture Clinic

The couple have two children, Kylie and Dale, who someday hope to work in the clinic too.

"It's not even work, we both love what we do. We love the people and really enjoy working together as a team," said Kelly.

"We really do care about your smile."