Tri-county battles keep Raiders busy

Minor novice

The Georgetown Minor Novice AA Raiders played a couple of strong games, but came up short in both.

On Tuesday the Raiders lost 5-1 against Burlington and Sunday they fell 5-0 against Brampton.

Michael Carter scored the only goal of the week for Georgetown against Burlington. Corey Carlton picked up the assist. Jordan White and Jeff Gribbon continued to play well in goal.

Against Brampton, Corey Carlton, Chad Mercer and Michael Carter lead the offence that was stonewalled by a strong Brampton defence.

Major novice

The Georgetown Major Novice Raiders lost a close game to Oakville then bounced back and defeated Brampton in Tri-County hockey action last week.

The Raiders played host to Oakville on October 10 and dropped a 3-2 decision. Oakville scored first in 7:09 of the opening frame. Georgetown tied the game at 9:27 of the second on a nice three way play by Kevin Field, Matt Velten and Mark Boycott. Oakville scored twice in the third to make the game 3-1. Field closed the gap at 3:36 of the third with help from linemates Velten and Boycott. The Raiders tried hard for the equalizer but could not get one past the Oakville netminder. Shaun Dennie and Peter Tregunna played solid games on defense. Goaltenders Chris McCulloch and Josh Hunt faced plenty of shots in this close game.

The Raiders traveled to Brampton last Friday and defeated the Maroons 6-2. Dan Sliasis scored twice to lead the attack, with Aaron Kirk, Field, Velten and Boycott adding singles. Field, Boycott and Velten added two helpers each while Sliasis, Travis Bland and Timmy Walinga earned one a piece.

Novice II

This past week the Georgetown Novice "B" Raiders came away with some good news and some bad.

In Hillsburgh, they skated to a 5-2 victory behind solid defense led by Chad Neville, Patrick Hall, Jordan Jacobs and Ryan Clost.

However, it was a total team effort led by Ryan Fines with 2 goals and singles going to Adam McKnight, Daniel Ples and Kees Bradley that brought home the win.

On Sunday, the Raiders were back at home to Oakville. Although the home team lost 6-1, it was not a true reflection on how well the team played.

Aggressive fore-checking by David McNally and Jason Timmins led to good Raiders chances only to be turned away by hot goaltending by Oakville. Late in the third period James Mountford got the puck out of the corner and slid a pass to Adam McKnight who in one motion passed it across to Scott Atkinson in the slot. With the goalie down, Scott fired it into the corner of the net to break the shutout.

Minor atom

The Georgetown "AA" John Henderson Pro Shop Minor Atom Raiders suffered their first loss of the regular season in their fifth game, against Oakville, Tuesday, October 10.

Kyle Termini posted the first goal, assisted by Gavin Aldridge. Oakville replied with three goals before Termini again found the net, assisted by Aldridge and Marcus Sargent. Oakville expended their lead 4-2 before Aldridge scored, assisted by Termini, but the Raiders were unable to tie it up and had to settle for a 4-3 loss.

The Raiders fared no better on Friday night when they met Brampton, losing 6-3. Brampton scored twice before Jordan Cole put one in the net, assisted by Ryan Hirtle, as the first period ended. Kyle Termini tied things up in the first minute of second period play, with the help of Matt Hiltz, but Brampton skated past the Raiders twice more to take the lead 4-2. In the third period, after Brampton's fifth goal, John Moxham was able to get past their goalie, assisted by Hirtle and Hiltz. Brampton scored one more on the Raiders to solidify their victory.

Major atom

The Georgetown Sports Unlimited Major Atom Raiders are undefeated after winning games against Burlington and Orangeville last week. Excellent goaltending by Kevin Bokowski and Donnie Lane have helped the Raiders stay on top. The Raiders defeated their hosts Burlington 3-2 on October 12. Dustin McKnight scored for the Raiders at 2:32 of the third period to break a 2-2 tie with help from Kevin Oulds and Billy McDonald. The Raiders other goals were scored by Brent Beaumont during a goal mouth scramble from Brett Velten and by Rusty Parsons who fired a missile from the point assisted by Danny Walinga. The Raiders shut-out Orangeville 1-0 on October 15 in an exciting game at Alcott Arena. Oulds scored the lone goal for Georgetown at 1:40 of the first period assisted by Parsons and Andrew McGourty. Lane made some hair-raising saves to earn the shut-out and secure the win.

Atom II

The BDO Atom 2 Raiders suffered a 7-1 defeat on the road against Erin/Hillsburgh.

The third period did in the Raiders as they allowed 6 unanswered goals in that frame.

The first two periods were great for Georgetown. Andy Burns scored in the first from Jimmy Present. Goaltender Dustin Boreland stopped an Erin/Hillsburgh penalty shot. Boreland challenged the shooter and forced him to shoot wide.

Major pee wee

The Georgetown Charlie Fitzwhiskey Major Pee wees have been extremely busy in early Tri-county action. they currently sit with a 2-4-1 record after splitting a pair of decisions in the past few days.

Last Saturday the Raiders rallied from a 5-2 third period deficit to down Orangeville 6-5, with the winner coming with just eight second remaining.

The local squad wasn't as fortunate on Tuesday as Burlington rolled to a 7-0 win.

Against Orangeville, Pete Veltman led the Raider attack with two goals and an assist, the second of the contest being the game winner. Matt Walinga, Dave Giordano and Riley McAneney netted the others.

Pee wee II

The Georgetown Chiropractic and Sports Injuries Clinic Raiders

dropped a pair of Tri-county decisions last week.

Georgetown dropped a 3-1 heartbreaker to Oakville at home on Sunday night and fell 6-1 to Erin/Hillsburgh on Tuesday.

The Raiders scored first against Oakville getting a goal at 9:30 of the first period, scored by Alan Harvey and assisted by Ryan Norton and Kyle McIlvenna.

Despite a real effort both offensively and defensively, the Raiders couldn't hold off the Oakville squad. Goalie Brendan Louth made some spectacular saves but it wasn't enough as Oakville took the game by a score of 3-1.

A gallant effort by the Chiropractic & Sports Injuries Clinic PeeWee II's was for not as Hillsburgh/Erin scored a 6-1 win.

The lone Raider goal was scored in the second period by Bill Campbell assisted by Harvey. Brendan Coates made some super gloved saves in goal.

Minor bantam

The Minor Bantam team travelled to Burlington Wednesday night and despite valiant efforts by both goaltenders, Ryan Carter and Tyler Pearce, Georgetown was defeated 3-0. Carter held the team in the game throughout the first period making outstanding saves one after the other, but with just 2 minutes left in the first, the puck managed to sneak past him.

Diligent offensive work by Heinz, Cash, Hayes and Flaxbard in the early part of the second period failed to pay off and the Burlington goalie made a nice save on Dan McBride's blistering shot from the point at the halfway mark. When Burlington netted their second goal mid-way through the period, the Georgetown squad did not lose heart, and good hustle was displayed by Campbell, Rovere, Muscat, Travers and Martyniuk.

Early in the third, Burlington scored their insurance marker and Georgetown' defensive team of McClung, McBride, Mitchell and Stuttard worked hard to hold them at 3. Even though a win was not in the cards for Georgetown, the score indicated a big improvement over their pre-season contest with Burlington.
