655 In memoriam

CUTHBERTSON, Donald - Passed away October 20, 1994
It's only been a year,
We think of you often.
Your extended family in Georgetown, Acton and Milton.

LAZENBY, Robert - October 27, 1991
Just a tribute small and tender
Just to show we still remember.
Brother Thomas & Irene, nieces, nephews and family.

PARKER, Harold James - In loving memory of my dear Dad, who passed away Oct. 22, 1981
Always in my thoughts, forever in my heart,
Our love will never be apart.
Till we meet again!
Forever remembered and loved,
Daughter Cindy and family.

RICHARDSON, Walter - In loving memory of my dear husband, father, stepfather, grandfather who passed away, October 22, 1994.
Treasured still, with love sincere,
The memory of one we loved so dear,
Fondest thoughts are ever entwined,
In beautiful memories left behind.
Love Marion and families.

BY THE POWER OF NEWSPAPER

You never saw it coming. You were thumbing through the paper, minding your own business. When suddenly this ad caught your eye. And your interest. Newspapers don't read themselves, you know. It takes two, a newspaper AND YOU!
That's why newspaper is such a powerful advertising medium. It requires your full attention and complete concentration. The radio can be playing to nobody in particular, and the TV can be on in an empty room. But when people turn to their paper, they turn there with interest. Which means that's where your advertising message needs to be. With all the choices available, it's difficult deciding how best to advertise your business. But everything becomes a little simpler when you remember one rule ...
