They're cookin' now

We have our winners!
And now it's time to get cooking with Jean Paré's Company's Coming cookbook, Kid's Cooking.

The Georgetown Independent/Acton Free Press think it's such a great book, we held a trivia contest to give away 10 copies.

We had a great response, with many getting all the answers right! So we know there's some great cooks out there. However, there was one question that stumped a few of you: Dirt Cake is a delicious dessert because: A, it's chocolate pudding served in a flower pot; B, gritty dirt is healthy for you; C, squiggle worms are tasty. The correct answer is A, but many of you said C — hmmm, don't invite us to dinner please!

On Monday, October 23, Editor Robin Inscoe drew the names of 10 winners.

- They are:
1. Eric Pinkerton, Acton
 2. Becky Chapman, Acton
 3. Angela McFadden, Georgetown
 4. Micheline Thifault, Georgetown
 5. Michelle Batt, RR2 Acton
 6. Cathy Kruyssen, Georgetown
 7. John Cullen, Acton
 8. Lorna Brooks, RR1 Limehouse
 9. Kelly Rowe, Glen Williams
 10. Karen Harrison, Georgetown
- Winners will receive their copies of Kids Cooking shortly.

Wee Guys & Gals opened on Saturday, October 20th, 1995. Our first customer, "Wee" Kelly Henderson, with such taste and distinction quickly sought out a stylish black velour dress by Mousefeathers. Kelly was so very proud of her new look, she insisted on wearing her new dress home!
