Novice II's claim Newcastle crown

Seven Selects
 The Georgetown Remax 7 Year Old Selects started off the 1995-96 season last weekend with a pair of closely fought contests.

On Saturday, the team travelled to Chinguacousy for their league opener.

After a sluggish start where they fell behind 3-0, the boys found their skating legs and took control of the rest of the game.

The early deficit proved to be too large however, as the club dropped a tough 5-4 decision.

Goal scorers for Georgetown were Jeff Bayley with 2, Micheal LaRose and Ryan Putnam. Assists went to Peter Bailey with two helpers while Bayley, Raymond Martin, Kyle Westwood, Corey McLaughlin, Corey Durham and Micheal Gilham all pitched in with one apiece. Goaltenders Cameron Noble and Curtis Sargent both performed admirably in the nets for the local club making several nice saves. As Chinguacousy was expected to be one of the tougher teams in the loop, the Selects accounted well for themselves.

The following day, the Selects opened up the home season at Memorial Arena and were stymied by a strong Milton defence.

Georgetown came out strong to start the game but a Milton power play goal at 4:07 of the first period seemed to take the wind out of the teams' sails. Milton took a 3-0 lead before Micheal Larose broke the Milton goalie's shutout with a pretty goal early in the third period, but that was all the offence the Selects could muster making the final score 3-1. Assists on Larose's goal went to Jeff Bayley and Corey Durham.

The Selects defence excelled in this game and limited Milton to only a few good scoring chances. Particularly strong for Georgetown was Daniel Eutenier and Mitchell Thompson. Good work from Christopher Darling and Corey McLaughlin for the local boys kept Milton guessing as well. Good things are expected from the Selects coaching staff of Paul LaRose, Chris Turner and Paul Martin as the team progresses and molds into a cohesive unit. The club traveled to Orangeville on Saturday, for a clash with their northern neighbors.

Minor novice
 The Georgetown Minor Novice AA hockey team lost a tough 5 to 0 game against Orangeville last Thursday.

Joel Graves, Corey Colarossi, and Ryan Reist applied pressure to the Orangeville defence, but they couldn't come up with any goals.

Goaltenders Jordan White and Jeff Gribbon kept the game close. Wally Clost's team is playing well, but came seem to score any goals.

Major novice
 The Georgetown Major Novice Raiders played home and home games against Orangeville, improving their record to 5-1-1.

The Raiders skated to a 3-3 draw at Memorial Arena on October 17 in a see-saw battle. Matt Velten opened the scoring for the Raiders at :27 of the first frame assisted by linemates Kevin Field and Mark Boycott. Field put Georgetown ahead by two at 3:45 of the second with help from Velten. Orangeville scored the twice to tie the game. Travis Bland and Field set-up Boycott who notched the go-ahead goal for the Raiders at 1:32 of the third frame. Orangeville kept pressing and managed to score the equalizer with :52 left on the clock.

The Raiders travelled to Orangeville on October 21 and were determined to win. Chris McCulloch manned the net for the first two periods and shut-out the Flyers. Shaun Dennie made some great moves to keep the Orangeville offence silent. Aaron Kirk played a nice game nabbing a goal and an assist. Scoring the Raiders other goals were Field and Boycott with Bland, Boycott and Daniel Slihasas garnering assists. Georgetown was victorious with a final of 3-1.

Novice II
 This past weekend the Georgetown Novice B Raiders battled against some tough competition during their first tournament of the season in Newcastle.

The goaltending of Brett Hirtle and Robbie Greenwell kept the Raiders close throughout the tournament as the Raiders were out-shot 51-19 for three games.

The continuous improvement of this well-coached team was realized in their divisional championship game against the host team from Newcastle.

Solid positional play by everyone and strong fore-checking led by MVP Adam McKnight, captain James Mountford, Ryan Fines, Kees Bradley and Jason Timmins kept the Newcastle North Stars scoreless after two periods.

At the same time the offense continues to be productive. Leading scorer Scott Atkinson game the Raiders a 1-0 lead after receiving a pass from Daniel Ples and Adam McKnight. Minutes later Jordan Jacobs from behind the net slid the puck along the boards to defensive partner Ryan Clost. With pin-point accuracy Clost threaded a pass that seen David McNally in alone from centre ice.

McNally pulled away from the Newcastle defense and after faking the goalie to his left, McNally fired home the game winner to the bottom right hand corner of the net.

After that it was the defences turn to shine. Chad Neville, Patrick Hall, Ryan Clost and Jordan Jacobs kept Newcastle pinched inside their own blue line for most of this Championship game.

In all it was a total team effort that brought home the championship trophy with a 2-1 victory.

Minor atom
 The John Henderson Pro Shop Minor Atom AA squad played two strong games this past week winning one and coming up short in the other.

At home against Orangeville Georgetown came out fired up and scored a closely fought 4-3 win. Gavin Elinesky, Brad Norton, Kyle Termini, and John Moxham scored the goals.

Saturday night Georgetown travelled to ST. Catharines and came up on the short end of a 4-

2 score. Brad Norton and Matt Hilts scored the goals for Georgetown.

Major atom
 The Georgetown Sports Unlimited Major Atom Raiders continue to rout the competition in the Bowen division with a perfect record.

The Atom Raiders extended their win streak after defeating Brampton 3-1 and Oakville 3-2.

Goaltending by Donnie Lane and Kevin Bokowski has been superb.

Dan Walinga led the attack against Brampton on October 17, burying the puck in the opponent's net two times. Matt Knoepfli notched two helpers while Rusty Parsons added a single. Billy McDonald also scored for the Raiders on a nice three-way play from Kevin Oulds and Andrew McGourty.

Bokowski was between the pipes blocking many shots.

The 3-2 win over Oakville proved to be one of the most exciting games of the season. Oakville drew first blood but Oulds tied the game at :22 of the first frame assisted by McGourty and Scott Rostrup. Oakville was able to squeeze another one by the Raiders. The Raiders kept the pressure on and their hard work off. Brent Beaumont netted the equalizer, with 3:53 remaining with help from McDonald and Jeff Boyce. Beaumont, McDonald and Boyce came up big again as Beaumont tucked the game winner into the net at 1:26.

Donnie Lane made some big saves in the Georgetown net.

Atom II
 The Georgetown Atom 2 Raiders played three tough games this past weekend and came away with just one tie.

Georgetown lost to Elora 5 to 1. Lost to Milton 2 to 1. They tied Orangeville 3-3.

Jason Richardson scored the only goal against Elora, while Blake Corrin did the same against Milton. Blake Corrin, Steven Kogan, and Jason Richardson scored the goals against Orangeville.

Between the pipes both Dustin Boreland and Aaron Cardon had strong weekends and kept the games close.
