Raider squads fit to be tied in Tri-county action

Minor PeeWee

The Georgetown "AA" Minor PeeWee Raiders are well into the new 95-96 season. The club, sponsored by Professional Demonstrating Services (P.D.S.), stands at a record of 5 wins - 2 losses and 1 tie.

Season opening games results are: Georgetown 17 - Chinguacousy 4, Georgetown 1 - Milton 1, Georgetown 7 - Oakville 5, Georgetown 4 - Burlington 1, Orangeville 4 - Georgetown 2, Brampton 3 - Georgetown 2, Georgetown 5 - St. Catharines 3, Georgetown 6 - St. Catharines 3.

Major peewee

The Georgetown Charlie Fitzwhiskey Major Peewees managed a win, a loss and a tie in Tri-county action this week.

On Friday night the Raiders surprised Milton at Alcott, skating to a 3-3 draw. On Saturday afternoon the Raiders added a win with a 4-2 triumph over St. Catharines. A return match in St. Catharines wasn't as rewarding for the locals as they fell 5-2.

Peter Veltman led the Georgetown attack against Milton earning a goal and two assists. Riley McAnaney and Matt Walinga netted the other goals. Matt Hess was outstanding between the pipes.

Veltman was hot again on Saturday, chipping in two goals, including one into the empty net. Jamie Reynolds and Bill Jackman also scored, while Nate Cardon held the hot hand in net.

In St. Catharines it was Walinga and Jackman lighting the lamp.

Peewee II

A cliffhanger of a game between the Georgetown Peewee II Raiders and Orangeville last Sunday, as a 6-6 tie was hammered out.

With Brendan Coates in goal, the Raiders proved they were hard to beat. Orangeville got in the first goal, and the Raiders answered back late in the first period with Todd Kerwin getting the nod unassisted.

Georgetown started the second period with a point earned at 14:34 by Alan Harvey assisted by Mike Noonan and Ryan Norton. Two more goals were scored by the Raiders with Sean Reynolds and Mike Noonan getting the markers assisted by Mike Boyle and Todd Kerwin. The Raiders ended the period ahead by 4-3.

Again, the third period was opened with the Raiders notching a goal at 10:14 scored by Kyle McIlvenna assisted by Bill Campbell to make it 5-3.

Orangeville rallied with three quick goals in to go ahead 6-5 with 2:08 remaining. The Raiders squad didn't give up however and with the goalie pulled, Ryan Norton came up big with his goal scored with one second on the clock. Mike Boyle provided the assist.

Minor bantam

Minor Bantam Georgetown "AA" Minor Bantam Raiders played another great game at Alcott Arena on Oct. 12, earning a 4-4 tie with Oakville.

The first period was exciting and the Raiders held their own, but there was no scoring.

Oakville starts the second period by scoring a short handed goal. The Raiders tied the contest with Trevor Cash scoring from Josh Travers.

Oakville regained the lead before the second ended.

Trevor Cash evened the count, again, with Jason Hayes and Michael Rovere assisting.

Moving at a fast pace at the 4:26 mark, Nico Zentil scored for the Raiders from Josh Travers and Michael Rovere.

Oakville responded with two quick goals, getting the advantage in the game.

With the man advantage, Michael Rovere scored the tying goal for the Raiders, from Roddy Heinz and Brent McClung, producing a 4-4 draw.
