Seven Selects nipped by Orangeville

Seven Selects

Early game woes continue to plague the Georgetown Remax 7 year old hockey club early in the season as the boys allowed three quick goals in the first period before losing to Orangeville 4-3 last Saturday.

After getting over their opening game jitters the Selects settled down and at 4:49 of the second period were rewarded as Micheal LaRose found the Orangeville net with a laser of a shot. Peter Bailey assisted on the goal as the Raiders continued to press the Orangeville defence.

Orangeville responded with a goal of their own before the 2nd period ended and owned what seemed to be an insurmountable 4-1 lead.

However, the stubborn Selects fought back in the third and scored two goals in a matter of minutes to close the gap to 4-3. Jeff Bayley and Larose tallied unassisted markers for the Raiders as they battled to notch the tying goal.

With goalie Curtis Sargent on the bench in favour of an extra attacker the Raiders swarmed the Orangeville net like bees to a hive but were denied by an equally tenacious Orangeville defence.

Strong efforts on the attack for the Raiders by Matthew Turner and Micheal Gillham almost pulled this one out of the fire.

On defence, the duo of Brady Gingras and Alex Bulgarelli kept a close eye on the opposition and kept their scoring chances to a minimum.

Minor Novice

The Georgetown Minor Novice Raiders came out on the short end of a 3-1 decision to Brampton last week.

In the first period, with Georgetown pressing, Brampton scored on a breakaway.

Brampton added two more second period markers before Georgetown scored their lone tally at the 5:11 mark of the third period with Chad Mercer lighting the lamp from Kevin Greer and Corey Carlton.

Excellent game with full marks to Georgetown for the full team effort the best all round game of new season.

Major Novice

The Georgetown Major Novice Raiders improved their record to 7-1-1 last week defeating Brampton 5-2 and Oakville 4-2.

Josh Hunt and Chris McCulloch made some big saves between the pipes to help secure the victories.

Tim Walinga got things started for the Raiders when Brampton came to town on October 24. Aaron Kirk made a perfect pass to Walinga to put Georgetown on the scoreboard. Mark Boycott gave the Raiders a two goal lead :10 seconds later with help from Travis Bland. The Raiders other goals were scored by Matt Velten, Dan Slihas and Kevin Field. Assisting were Boycott (2), Matt Chisolme, Field and Velten.

The Raiders travelled to Oakville on October 28 and skated to an exciting 4-2 win. Oakville scored in the first frame but Velten tied the game assisted by Boycott and Field. Oakville regained the lead in the second in this well matched battle. Slihas tied things up for the Raiders at 1:46 of the period with help from Nick McLaughlin. Field netted the game winner at 1:46 of the third with Shaun Dennie nabbing the assist. Oakville pulled their goalie for the extra attacker but it was Bradley Torres who scored in the empty net to give the Raiders a 4-2 victory. Field and McLaughlin assisted. Colin Lumb and Peter Tregunna have played well contributing to the Raiders success.

Novice II

After losing their season opener to Fergus 9-0, the Georgetown Referee's Association Novice II Raiders rebounded with their best team effort of the season, dropping a 2-1 contest to the same Fergus squad. They also dropped a 9-0 match to acton in action this week.

With Fergus leading 1-0 after the first period, Georgetown came to life in the second. The brilliant defensive play of Chad Neville, Jordan Jacobs, Pat Hall and Daniel Ples combined with solid goaltending of Robbie Greenwell and Brett Hirtle shut the strong Fergus team down. At the same time the relentless forechecking of Adam McKnight who poked the puck clear to James Mountford at the side of the net who managed to then slide a pass across the crease to a wide open Tyler Patterson who wisely took his time and fired the puck over a sprawled Fergus goaltender. Now tied 1 to 1 and the Raiders playing superbly, it looked as though a win was in the air. However, it was Fergus that scored late in the third and ended the game 2 to 1.

After playing a solid game against Fergus, the Georgetown Referee Association Novice II Raiders then followed it up with 9 to 0 loss to Acton.

More embarrassing then the score was the shots on goal of 34 to 1 in favor of Acton. Even though it was a one-sided effort, the strong forechecking and positional play of Scott Atkinson, Kees Bradley, Ryan Clost, Ryan Fines, David McNally and Kyle Hume deserves recognition. The coaches are confident that the Raiders will learn from this experience and perform better in future games.

Minor Atom

The Georgetown Minor Atoms managed just one win in three outings last week, downing St. Catharines 3-2. They dropped a 6-4 decision to Brampton and a 3-1 match to Orangeville.

The first of three games played this week was against St. Catharines.

Kyle Termini scored an unassisted goal to get the John Henderson Pro Shop Minor Atom "AA" team on the scoreboard. St. Catharines replied with a goal, but Jordan Cole quickly put Georgetown back in the lead, assisted by Bradley Norton as the first period ended. St. Catharines tied things up early in the second period, but North found the net with help from line-mates Cole and Matt Hilts to put us back in front 3-2, and that is how the score remained throughout the final period.

On Oct. 26 Brampton came to Georgetown and got on the scoreboard quickly, leading 2-0 before three minutes had elapsed.

Brampton scored four more unanswered goals, before the Raiders came alive with eight minutes to go in the game. Kyle Termini was the first to put the puck in the net, assisted by Matt Gruenwald and Gavin Aldridge.

Two minutes later John Moxham shot one in, with help from Jordan Armstrong and Ryan Hirtle. A pass from Termini in front of the net set up Aldridge for the third goal.

The final Raider marker was posted by Armstrong, assisted by Hirtle and Moxham as the game wound down and Georgetown settled for a 6-5 defeat.

Last Saturday, the Minor Atoms travelled to Orangeville. After a fast scoreless first period, Orangeville found the net early in the second. Matt Hilts tied things up, assisted by Brad Norton and Thomas Elinesky part way into the third period. Orangeville quickly replied with their second goal, and then their third to clinch the win 3-1.

Major Atom

The Georgetown Sports Unlimited Major Atom Raiders ended their six game winning streak suffering losses to St. Catharines, Brampton and Orangeville.

The Raiders were extremely busy during the month of October and appear to have lost the momentum they had going.

Scoring for the Raiders in these close defeats were Mike Eichstedt, Dan Walinga and Kevin Oulds. Assists were earned by Matt Knoepfli (2), Vince Burke, Thomas Stokes and Walinga.

Atom II

The Georgetown Atom II Raiders were on the losing end of a pair of matches last week, finding Arthur extremely strong in a 16-0 defeat and Acton just as stingy in a 6-0 setback.

Travelling to Arthur, the home side outplayed and outskated the Raiders, pounded Dustin Boreland with shots. Despite the score, Boreland played a good game making some great saves.

In a home rough, action packed contest the Raiders kept Acton to one goal in first and second. Acton notched four in the final frame for the win. Aaron Cardon manned the nets coming up with some great saves with Acton charging the net.
