Novice Raiders continue to rout rivals

7 Selects

The Georgetown Remax 7 year old Selects hockey club were handed a large dose of reality last Sunday as a smooth skating and precise Oakville squad visited Memorial Arena and handed the locals a lopsided 12-0 loss.

While the early tempo of the game gave no indication of the dominance of the visitors, there was soon no doubt that they were the better club on this particular day. By the time the first period buzzer had sounded Oakville had pounded out a 4-0 lead.

Georgetown gamely fought for control of the contest but the accurate passing and the deadly shooting from the Oakville team proved to be too overwhelming. Time and time again, Georgetown would pounce on a loose puck only to be enveloped by two and sometimes three Oakville defenders.

For Georgetown, Christopher Darling provided some spark everytime he touched the puck, while Jeff Bayley, Peter Bailey and Ryan Putnam tried to solve the Oakville puzzle with some solid digging in the corners and at mid-ice. Cameron Noble was solid in the nets after taking over at the midpoint of the game. Defensively, Mitchell Thompson, Alex Bulgarelli and Daniel Eutenier acquitted themselves well with Thompson also jumping into the attack on occasion.

Minor Novice

The Georgetown minor novice Raiders dropped a pair of last 2-0 to Milton.

Kyle Oliver scored two second period goals as the Raiders put on their best offensive display of the season in Oakville on November 1.

Michael Caret opened the scoring at 3:21 mark of the first period for the Georgetown team assisted by Chad Skinner and Chad Mercer to tie the score at 1-1 after one period.

Oakville jumped out to 3-1 lead midway through the second period. Kyle Oliver scored at 5:38 mark assisted by Skinner and Ryan Reist to bring the score to 3-2.

Oakville added two more goals before Oliver, with a beautiful wraparound effort, responded with this second goal assisted by Corey Carlton with two seconds remaining in the middle stanza.

Oakville owned the final period scoring four unanswered goals for a 9-3 win.

The local minor novice played great game deserve better than 2-0 loss in Milton. Georgetown played omne of their their best all around game of year to date.

Jeff Gribbon played shut out goal and Jordan White continued to keep Milton at bay.

After a scoreless opening two periods, Milton scored twice in the third to put the game on ice. Great individual efforts by Kevin Greer, Michael Clost, Michael Clarizio and Corey Colarossi could not bulge to twine of the Milton net.

Major novice

The Georgetown Major Novice Raiders continue to crush the competition winning contests against Milton and Chinguacousy in recent Tri-county hockey action.

The Raiders defeated Milton 5-1 last Sunday at Thompson Arena.

Kevin Field opened the scoring for the Raiders early in the first frame assisted by Matt Velten and Dan Sliasis.

Milton was able to squeeze one by Georgetown and tie the game at 6:09 but goaltender Chris McCulloch made no mistake turning away some great shots for the remainder of the game. Defencemen Sliasis and Shaun Dennie showed good puck control on the blue line during this match.

Georgetown's second goal was scored when Bradley Torres flipped the puck back to Dennie who made a nice pass to his partner Sliasis who one-timed it into the Milton net. Matt Chisolme quickly scored with a nice backhanded shot to give the Raiders a 3-1 lead. Torres and Colin Lumb worked hard to earn the assists.

Aaron Kirk was next in line for the Raiders with help from Tim Walinga and Peter Tregunna. Field added his second of the game unassisted to make the final 5-1.

Chinguacousy came to town on November 7 only to be defeated 8-1 by the Raiders. Josh Hunt was between the pipes in this romp making some key saves. The Raiders were ahead 7-0 before Ching could break the shut-out.

Travis Bland and Tregunna were a dynamic duo on defence keeping the opposition out of the Georgetown zone.

Scoring for the Raiders were Velten (2), Kirk (2), Torres, Field, Chisolme and Travis Bland. Assists were earned by Mark Boycott (2), Field (2), Chisolme, Bland, Nick McLaughlin, Walinga and Lumb.

Novice II

The Georgetown Referee's Association Novice II Raiders continue to face tough competition and this week was not different. In Oakville this past Saturday the Raiders went down to defeat 5-0. On Sunday they dropped a 2-0 decision to Arthur.

Behind stellar goaltending by Robbie Greenwell and Brett Hirtle, who faced 44 shots, the Raiders only managed four of their own against a solid Oakville team. However the Raider offense did threaten early in the second period with the score tied at zero.

Crisp passing from Jordan Jacobs and Ryan Fines set up David McNally at the side of the net who rang the post past a frozen goaltender. Minutes later McNally hit the other post after a brilliant set up from Daniel Ples and Kees Bradley.

The forechecking of new comers Tyler Patterson and Kyle Hume continue to impress as does the defensive work of Chad Neville in the Raiders zone.

Overall the continuous improvement of this team is becoming more apparent after every game.

The Raiders continued with their improving ways at home the following night against Arthur who upset Georgetown 2-0.

The line of Adam McNight at centre with James Mountford and Tyler Patterson continue to play well and had several scoring chances throughout. Ryan Clost, who is back and playing with a broken finger, displayed some strong, aggressive play in the neutral zone. Scott Atkinson and Patrick Hall also played well.

Minor Atom

The John Henderson Pro Shop Minor Atom 'AA' squad travelled to Oakville last Saturday, November 4, to tackle the Rangers, but came out on the short end of a 5-1 decision.

Despite almost an almost equal number of shots on the goalies, Oakville managed to get on the scoreboard first, leading 1-0 at the end of the first period and 2-0 by the end of the second.

With 3 1/2 minutes left in the game, the Rangers managed a third and then a fourth goal, before Bradley Norton found the open side of the net, assisted by Kyle Termini and Gavin Aldridge.

A final Oakville goal gave them the 5-1 win.

The Burlington Minor Atoms travelled up to Georgetown on Tuesday with revenge in mind, after losing to the Raiders 5-2 earlier.

Despite the pressure put on by Georgetown in the first few minutes, Burlington notched the first goal.

As the first period wound down, Ryan Hirtle found the open side of the net to tie things up, assisted by John Moxham and Jordan Armstrong. Daryl Veltman put the Raiders ahead with a blasting shot from the blue line, with help from Moxham and Hirtle. A scramble in front of the net resulted in another goal for the home team as Thomas Elnesky and Matt Hiltz fed the puck to Jordan Cole.

Burlington replied with a power play goal, but Moxham increased the lead 4-2, assisted by Hirtle. Another power play goal for Burlington in the third period, and their final goal against Georgetown that remained unanswered, had the Raiders settling for a 4-4 tie.

Atom II

The Georgetown Atom II Raiders dropped decisions to Acton 8-2 and Arthur 9-1 in Tricounty hockey action last week.

The Raiders travelled to Acton, only to have the home side claim an early 3-0 lead.

The Raiders notched their first goal at 3:47 as Steven Kogan lit the lamp with Lucas Arnold assisting. Acton scored with 20 sec. remaining to take a 5-1 lead. Acton rallied to claim an 8-1 lead before Raider centre Black Corrin fired in the Raiders second goal. Teammate Daniel VanHaastrecht eaned an assist.

Dustin Boreland came up with some good saves for the Raiders throughout the game.

Raiders played a strong game on home ice to a solid Arthur team.

Netminders Arron Cardon and Dustin Boreland shared the duties, blocking lots of chances for Arthur. Cardon played first two frames with Boreland taking the third. Arthur took a 4-0 lead in first.

The whole Raider squad played a tight second allowing Arthur one goal.

Blake Corrin sent one ripping for the Raiders at 7:09 of the third on a great set up play by Andy Burns and Jason Richardson to bring the score to 5-1.

Arthur notched four more to take the 9-1 victory.
