Three straight wins for PDS Raiders

Minor peewee

The Georgetown P.D.S. Minor Peewee Raiders collected victories in their last three outings to boost their record to an impressive 8-2-1.

On October 28, the Raiders doubled up Orangeville, 6-3. Kyle Hotham led with a hat trick, while Shawn McCulloch, Ryan Busby and Mike Boyle added a goal each.

Last Sunday, the Raiders pounded their Oakville hosts 8-1. Netting goals were: Tim Mansfield, Kyla Hotham, Ronny Larocque, Graham McCulloch (2), Ryan Busby (2), and Mark Fantegrossi.

Last Tuesday at Alcott, the Raiders continued their scoring rampage, blowing away Burlington 7-1.

In this rough'n tumble marathon, which featured eleven penalties a side, the Raiders also continued their success in keeping shots against them to a minimum. Goal scorers were: Mark Fantegrossi (2), Kyle Hotham, Ron Larocque, Ryan Busby, Graham McCulloch and Mike Boyle. Assisting on the plays were: Ryan Field (3), Busby (2), Hotham, Alex Durham, Fantegrossi and G. McCulloch.

Georgetown House League Hockey teams had last weekend off with the Hockey Heritage Oldtimers Tourney taking place. Tykes, like Eagle Landscaping and the Kiwanis Club were back on the ice this weekend. The Kiwanis won this contest 4-1.

Peewee II

The Georgetown Chiropractic and Sports Injuries Centre Peewee II's Raiders dropped matches against Arthur and Orangeville last week.

With Brendan Coates, in goal the Raiders came out with a valiant attempt against Acton but came up short with just one goal being scored by Mike Noonan with the assist going to Alan Harvey. A heavy penalty load prevented rushes by Reynolds, Norton, McIlvenna and Noonan from paying off.

Despite a loss to Orangeville, the Raiders really worked hard and had some terrific plays that just didn't work with any points. Brenden Louth was between the pipes for the 3-0 loss. Kevin Fleming and McIlvenna as well as Reynolds and Robbins played hard for the team effort.

earned assists on the play.

Minor bantams

The Georgetown M&M Pro Sports Minor Bantam 'AA' Raiders earned a tie in two outings last week, dropping a 6-3 decision to Orangeville but rebounding for a 2-2 tie with St. Catharines.

The Raiders travelled to Orangeville for a tricity clash.

Orangeville took a 1-0 lead early with the Raiders evening the score on a goal by Trevor Cash midway through the first frame. Assists went to Chris Martyniuk and Nico Zentil.

Goaltender Tyler Pearce made several key saves to maintain a 1-1 tie at the end of the penalty-filled first period.

Jason Hayes put the M&M Pro Sports squad up 2-1 early in the second with assists again going to Nico Zentil and Chris Martyniuk.

However, four unanswered markers late in the second allowed Orangeville to take a commanding 5-2 lead.

The teams tied the third frame with Orangeville scoring early. Trevor Cash closed out the Raider scoring with his second of the night with assists going to Roddy Heinz and Chris Martyniuk, with his third of the game.

Although his efforts did not show up on the scoresheet, Kevin Flaxbard continued his determined checking at both ends of the rink.

The M&M Pro Sports crew hosted St. Catharines on Thursday night.

The first period the teams were tied at 1-1. Sean Muscat scored Georgetown's goal showing good hustle with an assist from Bryan Bluttard.

Great goaltending by Ryan Carter kept St. Kitts off the scoreboard in the second period as Georgetown played short handed a number of times. Georgetown gained the lead on another goal by Sean Muscat assisted by Josh Travers and Jason Campbell. Halfway through the period St. Kitts tied it up on a power play. This was a very physical game with good body checking provided by Heing, Rovere, Hayes, McBride, and Flaxbard.

been busy in the early going on their Tri-county schedule, reaching the half way point on Sunday afternoon in Orangeville.

The Raiders scored a 3-1 win in the outing and boast a .500 record of 6 wins, 6 losses and two ties.

The Raiders headed into weekend action hoping to move ahead of the .500 mark but they dropped a 6-4 decision in Oakville on Saturday forcing them to win in Orangeville to stay at the magic mark.

The Raiders had their chances in Oakville, failing to capitalize on some early opportunities and it came back to haunt them. Riley McAneney, Greg Bidwell, Peter Veltman and minor peewee Graham McCulloch lit the lamp. Ryan Inglis earned two assists while

McAneney, Veltman, McCulloch, Dan Fievet, Derrick Inscoc and Dave Giordano chipped in with single helpers

The Raiders had their hands full with Orangeville on Sunday, scoring twice in the final six minutes for a 3-1 win.

Inglis gave Georgetown the lead from Matt Walinga and Simon Saulnier in the second but Orangeville rallied to tie things up on the powerplay.

The Raiders went up again with six minutes remaining as Inscoc jammed a loose puck home. Saulnier picked up his second point of the game on the play.

Veltman rounded out the scoring as the Raiders added a powerplay goal of their own with two minutes remaining. Jamie Reynolds and Bill Jackman
