Chance to win a cookbook

The holiday season is fast approaching and many party hosts are looking for just the right recipe to serve to family and friends.

With this in mind, we'd like you to send us your favorite holiday recipe and we'll share as many as possible with our readers.

As an added incentive, we'll hold a draw from all the entries received for a chance to win one of 10 Ronald McDonald House Family Cookbooks.

The cookbook, which is now on sale for $5.99 province-wide at A&P, Dominion, Miracle Food Mart, Super Fresh, Ultra Mart and Save-

A-Centre stores, includes quick 'n easy recipes from families who have stayed at one of the two Ronald McDonald Houses in Toronto.

Ronald McDonald Houses are "homes-away-from-home" for out-of-town families and their children who are receiving treatment for cancer or other illnesses at local children's hospitals.

Send or drop off your recipes to Recipes, The Independent/Free Press, 211 Armstrong Ave., Georgetown, L7G 4X5.

The deadline for entering is Dec. 8, 1995.

Girl struck

A 12-year-old girl fell off her bike on John St. near Pinevalley Rd. and was struck by a 1983 Chrysler Wednesday evening. The car couldn't stop because of the icy road, police said. The girl was taken to Georgetown Hospital by ambulance but was not seriously injured.

Car break-in Someone broke into a car parked at the Georgetown GO lot during the day Wednesday, police said. The owner returned to the 1983 Chevrolet to find a window broken and the papers from a briefcase scattered outside the car.

Police Blotter

Buses entered

Someone entered two school buses parked in Acton overnight Sunday. A fire extinguisher and two axes were taken, police said. Snow may have been placed in the gas tanks.

Cell phone missing

A cellular phone was taken from a 1990 Dodge parked on Maple Ave. overnight Sunday, police said. There was no indication of forced entry.

Fail to remain

Someone struck a pick-up truck parked at Georgetown Marketplace Mall during the afternoon of Nov. 17, resulting in about $500 damage. If anyone has information about the accident, please contact police.

Computers taken

A total of $8,500 was taken by thieves who broke into Robert Little School on Nov. 10. This includes printers, keyboards and CDs. An alarm went off and police arrived to find someone had been in the school for some time already.
