

Three-point week for Hurricanes

The Halton Minor Novice Hurricanes are on a roll — tying St. Catharines 1-1 on home ice last Wednesday in a real nail biter and then downing Guelph 6-2, in action last week.

There was no score in the first period of the St. Catharines game, but early in the second Mark Humberstone gave the Hurricanes the lead scoring on a beautiful breakaway with the pass from Anthony Murphy.

Halton held opposition at bay until, with three minutes left, St. Catharines pushed one passed Halton goalie Chris Louth, ending in a tie.

In their next bout, the Canes trounced Guelph with a score of 6-2.

Halton took the lead in the first period when Anthony Murphy fired the puck into the net on passes from Jonathan Schultz and Blake Hamilton.

Tyler Holmes followed suit netting one on a breakaway assisted by Tyler Gill. Not to be outdone Ryan Williams poked the puck past Guelph goalie on a pass from Mark Humberstone and Johathon Schultz.

The second period started with another whirlwind for the 'Canes as Jonathon Schultz scored from the blue line on a pass from Kelly Quinn and Anthony Murphy. Paul Sharples found the five-hole tallying another for the Canes, assisted by Tyler Holmes and Creighton Reid. Tyler Holmes netted the last Canes goal assisted by Anthony Murphy.

Guelph came alive in the final frame, putting two by Halton goalie Madison Schott, ending the game 6-2.

'Canes have Ching singing the blues

The Halton Hills Sentrex Major Novice Hurricanes gave no mercy in a 10-3 thumping of the Chinguacousy Blues recently, before shuffling of to Buffalo for an 8-7 exhibition win over the Buffalo Regals.

Ching came out determined but couldn't handle the strength and speed Halton had to offer leading the way for the 'Canes were Stephan Leblanc with 3 goals, 2 assists; Matt Bronizcioski 2 goals, 4 assists; Jay Sprague 3 goals, 1 assist; David Tielemans 1 goal, 2 assists; Jonathan Southgate 1 goal, 1 assist; Robert Sgarbossa 1 goal, 1 assist; Howie Martin 2 assists and Tipher Ley 1 assist.

In the exhibition contest Buffalo scored first, but 18 seconds later Robert Sgarbossa evened the count. The Regals took the lead again only to have Matt Bronizweski tie it up two minutes later from Trevor Pietz and Matt Reed. One more each way saw the first end in a 3-3 tie. Halton's third came from the stick of Jay Sprague, Stephan Leblanc and Bronizewski assisting.

Halton took the lead thanks to a goal by Stephen Leblanc assisted by Robert Sgarbossa and Matt Lyons.

Buffalo came back with two goals before Trevor Peitz tied it up again. At the end of two it was 5-5.

Jonathan Southgate gave the Hurricanes a third period lead from Bronizewski and Tiekmans but the Regals proved to be tough coming back to tie it again. Southgate responded once more from Tielemans and Sgarbossa.

Bronizewski scored, what proved to be the game winner, assisted by Sprague and Leblanc.

Sharing the 8-7 victory between the pipes were Robert Smith and Kyle Russell.

Streak ends

The Acton Nellis Construction Novice 1 Sabres split their two games last week ending their unbeaten streak ended at 11 wins and two ties.

The Novice 1 Sabres defeated Oakville

5-2 last Tuesday but lost their first game of the season to Elora 6-4 last Sunday.

Kyle Winters scored a hattrick in the Oakville game while Andrew Robitaille and Jesse Sparkes netted singles.

The Sabres spotted Elora a 5-0 lead before Artem started a rally. Robitaille, Sparkes and Troy Ethier scored before Elora added an empty net goal to secure the win.
