Tourney time for several Raider squads

Seven Selects

The Georgetown Remax 7 year old Selects continue to struggle offensively in Tri-County league play.

On Sunday, November 19, the Selects squared off against Burlington in their first encounter against their south Halton neighbors at Memorial Arena.

In a reversal of previous performances, that has seen the opposition take advantage of early game jitters, the Raiders came out of the gate flying and pressured Burlington on several occasions.

Goaltender Cameron Noble provided some solid, and at times spectacular goaltending to keep the Cougars from getting on the board.

The match was a goal less affair after one period of play, however the visitors got untracked at the 8:17 mark of the second period and never looked back, taking control and a 4-0 lead after two periods.

The third period saw a weary but determined Raiders give every effort to try and solve the Burlington netminders. Pretty passing played by the line of Raymond Martin, Peter Bailey and Micheal LaRose opened up a number of opportunities which the Raiders could not take advantage of.

Jeff Bayley continues his strong play for the Selects as does Chris Darling and Mike Cillham. Defensively, Daniel Eutenier and Kyle Westwood tried to keep the front of the Raider net free from the freewheeling Burlington boys.

Burlington continued to pour it on in the third and were rewarded with a number of goals coming off of breakaways. To make matters worse the Raiders even managed to put one behind their own goaltender off a deflection. After the final buzzer had sounded the visitors skated off with a convincing 9-0 win.

The Selects have been making vast improvements in all phases of the game and only need some good luck and hard work to get them over the hump in what is becoming a season full of "moral" victories.

Minor Novice

Georgetown Minor Novice "AA" Raiders lost 2-0 to Milton on Thursday November 16.

Milton scored twice in the middle period to take control of the game.

Georgetown goaltenders Jordan White and Jeff Gribbon played excellent goal to keep the game close. The team skaters are Mike Clarizio, Kyle Oliver, Sean Logan, Ryan Torres, Chad Skinner, Chad Mercer, Michael Carter, Corey Cocarossi, Michael Clost, Corey Carlton, Kevin Greer, Ryan Reist & Joel Greaves. Coached by Wally Clost, and Wally Clost Sr., and the manager/trainer Murray Greer.

In their next encounter the Raiders dropped a 3-1 decision to Burlington.

Georgetown Minor Novice "AA" Raiders opened the scoring at the 8:34 mark of the first period on a tic-tac-toe passing combination, Michael Carter to Chad Mercer to Corey Charlton, who made no mistake and hit the twine to take the lead 1-0.

The goaltending duo of White and Gribbon for Georgetown keep the game in sight with outstanding saves.

Burlington tied score at end of first and added singles in second and third periods to win the game 3-1.

Clarizio, Greer and Torres were outstanding on defense. The team worked hard to get coach Wally Clost a big birthday present.

Minor Novice

The Georgetown McNally Construction Major Novice Raiders participated in a tournament in Simcoe last weekend and although they won two out of three games it was not enough to advance.

In game one the Raiders shut-out Tri-County rival Burlington, 2-0. The scoring was done in the first period by Bradley Torres and Matt Velten with Matt Chisolme, Colin Lumb, Mark Boycott and Kevin Field assisting.

Later in the day, the Raiders met up with a tough squad from Chatham and could only manage one goal in this losing effort. Boycott scored the lone goal with help from Field and Bland.

Georgetown then edged Ajax 3-2 in an exciting game. Field scored twice for the Raiders assisted by Boycott (2) and Bland. Aaron Kirk notched the other goal on a nice set-up from Tim Walinga, Josh Hunt and Chris McCulloch made some hair-raising save in this close match.

Novice II

The Georgetown Referees Association Novice II Raiders were at home to Erin this past Friday night.

Splitting their first two encounters with one win each made this third game a real grudge-match for the two local rivals.

The Raiders opened the scoring early when James Mountford fired home a rising shot after receiving head man passes from linemates Adam McKnight and Tyler Paterson.

Early in the second period the Raiders then found themselves down 3 to 1. However, that did not discourage this young team from their objective.

Storming back, the Raiders defense of Jordan Jacobs and Daniel Ples kept Erin pinched in their own zone which resulted in assists on the rebound goal by Tyler Paterson. Later the defense pair of Patrick Hall and Chad Neville repeated the performance that resulted in a goal by Adam McKnight.

The line of David McNally, Ryan Fines and Scott Atkinson continue to play well which resulted in a goal by McNally.

Leading 4-3 late in the third period, Raider goalie Brett Hirtle brought home the Raider victory with some solid victory stops.

The Raiders followed up the next day with two games in a tournament in Seaforth. Even though the Raiders were eliminated in straight games, they should be proud of the way they performed.

Ryan Clost who led the team in scoring for two games received an MVP award as did line mates Kees Bradley and Kyle Hulme for their excellent performance. Chad Neville received a similar award for his performance on defense.

However, it was Brett Hirtle that won a trophy for the Best Goaltending during the shootout competition.

Minor Atom

The Georgetown John Henderson Pro Shop Minor Atom "AA" Raiders had a quiet week as far as regular league games went, but travelled up to Orangeville on Friday, November 17 and Sunday, November 19 to participate in the minor atom division of their tournament.

The Raiders met up with Barrie in the first game and, despite playing very well, came out on the losing side of the scorebook 2-0.

In the consolation semi-final on Sunday, the Raiders took on Newmarket in a fast-paced and evenly matched game. Newmarket scored first in the opening period, but a scramble in front of the net resulted in a Georgetown goal by John Moxham from Matt Hiltz and Bradley Norton part way through the second.

With things still tied up 1-1 at the end of the third, the teams headed for sudden-death overtime. Unfortunately, Newmarket was able to find the net before the Raiders did, and went on to the consolation final, while Georgetown headed home.

Major Atom

The Georgetown Sports Unlimited Major Atom Raiders won one and lost one in Tri-County action last week.

Kevin Oulds opened the scoring for Georgetown with help from Jeff Boyce. Brent Beamont was next in line for the Raiders assisted by Vince Burke and Matt Knoepfli. Dustin McKnight put Georgetown ahead 3-0 with Dan Walinga earning assist. Billy McDonald scored a pretty goal while the Raiders had a player in the penalty box with help from Walinga. Knoepfli added one more in the dying seconds of the game with Scott Rostrup and McDonald assisting.

The Raiders weren't so lucky when Milton came to town on November 19.

Once again, Oulds put the Raiders on the scoreboard with Andrew McGourty nabbing the assist. McDonald scored twice for Georgetown in this losing battle with help from Walinga (2) and Rusty Parson. Goaltending by Donnie Lane and Kevin Bokowski has been solid throughout the season.

Atom II

The Georgetown BDO Atom II Raiders travelled to Harriston for tournament play over the weekend.

The Raiders were matched against Goderich for their first game. Dustin Boreland started in net playing a solid first period allowing Goderich a single marker.

Second period play had Goderich moving ahead 3-0. Aaron Cardon took over goal duties in the third frame.

Goderich went ahead 4-0 at 9:15 before Blake Corrin netted the lone Raider goal on a beautiful unassisted wrap around shot. Goderich gained one more the take the game 5-1.

The second game of the tourney had the Raiders pitted against Brampton.

Cardon started in goal with Boreland entering the mesh midway through the first Brampton captured a quick three goal lead halfway into the first frame.

Steven Kogan found the momentum and poured on the pressure for the Raiders potting his first goal of the game at 3:44. Michael Zelek showed great hustling to claim the assist.

Brampton responded quickly for another 32 seconds later. Corrin fired one in at 1:18 with Kogan assisting to close the fast paced frame at 4-2.

The second period had the Raider squad playing with intense end to end action. Boreland left his net to come out and challenge his opponent to stone him on a breakaway. Kogan rattled the Brampton goalie for his second point of the game at 2:28 with Corrin connecting for the assist. Brampton notched one more at 1:18 to close the rough frame at 5-3.

Kogan was hot for the Raiders slamming in his hat trick goal at 4:14 in the third. Jason Richardson combined with Kogan for the assist. Brampton sunk two more to claim the victory 7-4. Despite the loss the Atom II Raider squad showed some fantastic forechecking and backchecking in this fast action packed contest.
