MORE REP RESULTS...

Major peewee

The Georgetown Charley Fitzwhiskey Major Peewee Raiders were fit to be tied at Alcott on Tuesday evening - tied with one second remaining.

The Raiders had to settle for a 6-6 draw with Oakville in Tri-county play, after battling to take the lead with 22 seconds remaining.

The Raiders fell behind 3-1 in the second but rallied for the lead early in the third. The see-saw battle went to the wire before Oakville found the equalizer.

Peter Veltman scored twice for the Raiders with Dave Gibbons, Jamie Reynolds, Matt

Walinga, and Riley McAneney netting the others. Ryan Inglis and Gibbons picked up two assists each.

Minor bantams

Georgetown's M&M Pro Sports Minor Bantam Raiders travelled to Oakville last Saturday, earning a 5-5 draw.

Oakville open a 2-0 first frame lead before Georgetown came to life.

The Raiders werestrong in the second with an early goal by Roddy Heinz from Sean Muscat and Jason Campbell. Less than two minutes later Georgetown evened the score with a short-handed goal from Nico Zentil from Kevin Flaxard.

Trevor Cash gave Georgetown the lead when he found an opportunity to put the puck upstairs on a pass from Derek Douey and Jason Hayes.

The third period proved to be an aggressive 15 minutes.

Oakville tied up the game with a goal off of a Raiders' skate. Georgetown was quick to recover with an unassisted goal from Brent McClung.

Oakville got the tying goal at 5:30 with another scramble in front of the net. A penalty for too many men against Georgetown, allowed Oakville the edge to go ahead making the score 5-4.

Georgetown finished the game with a second goal by Roddy Heinz off of Sean Muscat.

Final score 5-5 and final shots 22 apiece.
