Beta Sigma Phi Sorority

Xi Delta Beta meets every second Monday

By LINDA LEE
Special to The Independent/Free Press

Well, our 1995-1996 chapter year has started again, with a great Beginning Day had by all members of the Xi Delta Beta chapter. Our president, Carol Parker, hosted a beach party theme with lots of laughs, games and chatter. To finish off the evening, each member got to create a wonderful banana split which of course, we devoured very happily. Thanks Carol, for a great beginning.

Meetings are underway every second Monday at members' homes and different programs have been enjoyed by all. Brenda McMurray hosted a Spooky Halloween Party where five witches, two pigs, a caveman, a lion and a Scotsman enjoyed the evening.

Preceptor Gamma Chi knits for babies

By LOUISE GIFFEN
Special to The Independent/Free Press

The five chapters of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority of Halton Hills enjoyed a suspenseful experience when the Georgetown Globe Productions musical group provided a musical murder mystery on Oct. 25.

Preceptor Gamma Chi members enjoyed a barbecue and corn roast at the home of Jazzy Campbell to begin their year. A nutrition IQ tested our knowledge in a program held at the home of Louise Giffin. The membership recently enjoyed an evening at the House of Sol.

Presently donations of women's clothing and personal items are being collected for Halton Women's Place. Toques and sweaters are being knitted for the premature babies are distributed to the area hospitals.

Dear Santa Claus
I really had fun playing Sega over the year. We are going to give the reindeer some carrots this year again an I'll give you one of my chocolate treats. Santa, do you like Kindersnacks? In case you're wondering what I'd like for Christmas here are some ideas: a Stratego game, Micro-machine Van City, any kind of Micro-machine and the Lego Castle. Have a happy happy Christmas.

Love Iain Page, age 6

Dear Iain
Thank you for sending me such a nice list. I love Kindersnacks. I'm sure I'll have a happy Christmas, since I can make children like you happy. I'm glad you're going to feed the reindeer again. If they don't eat, they get pretty tired!
