Milton no match for Novice II Raiders

Seven Selects
 The Georgetown Remax Seven Selects returned to action after an extended lay off this past weekend with an exhibition tilt against the Cambridge Hawks at Memorial Arena.

After a shaky first period, the results of their inaction, the Raiders showed plenty of hustle and determination against the highly skilled visiting club.

The hole that the Selects dug themselves into proved to be insurmountable however as Cambridge skated off with a 7-2 victory.

The Raiders were once again led by the solid playmaking skills of the Michael LaRose, Peter Bailey and Raymond Martin forward line, with steady defensive play coming from Cory McLaughlin, Brady Gingras and Mitch Thompson. Peter Bailey tallied one of the Georgetown goals on a lovely setup from Michael LaRose and Kyle Westwood, open side of the net.

The other Georgetown goal came off a goalmouth scramble with LaRose finding the twine for the Raiders assisted by Bailey.

Minor Novice
 The Georgetown Minor Novice Raiders dropped three recent outings, losing a pair to Orangeville by 7-2 and 3-1 scores and dropping a 6-1 decision to Burlington.

Orangeville 7 - Georgetown 2
 Mike Carter potted two in the 7-2 loss to Orangeville. Chad Mercer assisted on the first one while Corey Charlton helped on the second goal.

The Raiders played a strong two way game in Orangeville on but were defeated by a 3-1 score.

After spotting Orangeville 2 goals Chad Mercer put the Raiders back in the game at the 5:44 walk of the third period with assists to Michael Carter and Michael Clarizio.

Orangeville added one into the empty net for the 3-1 win.

The Raiders fell victim to Burlington 6-1 on Sunday December 3 at Memorial in Georgetown.

Jordan White stopped numerous scoring attempts in this outing.

After spotting Burlington 4 goals, Chad Mercer scored the lone tally for the home side from Mike Carter, before Burlington added two more goals for a 6-1 victory.

Major novice
 The Georgetown McNally Construction Major Novice Raiders suffered their first shut-out of the season on December 2 against a strong Orangeville squad.

Orangeville capitalized on the power-play as the frustrated Raiders played much of the game shorthanded.

The Raiders calmed down for their next game and defeated Brampton 3-1. Tim Walinga buried the puck in the top shelf for the Raiders 20 seconds into the game to set the momentum Danny Sliasis and Bradley Torres assisted.

Matt Velten lit the lamp next for the Raiders after picking up a nice pass from Aaron Kirk. Mark Boycott bent the twine adding the insurance goal with help from Torres and Kirk.

Goaltenders Chris McCulloch and Josh Hunt were solid between the pipes.

Novice II

The Georgetown Referees Association Novice II Raiders faced Milton on November 30 at Alcott Arena in their only game this week in Tri-County action.

In a game that saw every Raider player contribute on the score sheet and was by far the teams best overall performance of the season, Milton went down hard by a score of 8-2.

Leading the way in scoring for the Raiders was David McNally with the hat trick. James Mountford netted a pair with singles going to Tyler Patterson, Ryan Clost and Ryan Fines.

Scott Atkinson and Tyler Patterson had three assists each while Mountford and Jordan Jacobs each had 2 assists. Other assists went to Chad Neville, Kyle Hulme, Ryan Clost, Keese Bradley, Daniel Ples and to Graham Knoepfli, who played superbly in his first game on defense replacing Patrick Hall.

Sharing the responsibility between the pipes and turning in fine performances were Robbie Greenwell and Brett Hirtle.

Game 1: Tuesday, November 28 Oakville at Georgetown - Georgetown 4 - Oakville 3

Game 2: Sunday, December 3 Georgetown at Brampton - Georgetown 3 - Brampton 3

The Georgetown John Henderson Pro Shop Minor Atom "AA" Raiders worked hard and earned three out of four points this week against two tough teams., edging Oakville 4-3 and tying Brampton 3-3.

Against Oakville, Jordan Armstrong opened up the scoring, assisted by John Moxham, but Oakville replied with 2 power play goals as the first period ended.

After a scoreless second frame Ryan Hirtle tied things up from Moxham and Armstrong, and then Hirtle found the net again, with assists going to Eric Euteneier and Matt Hilt. Oakville evened the score but the Raiders applied the pressure and Hilt popped the winning power play goal, assisted by Jordan Cole with a minute left in the game.

The Raiders did the same in Brampton, scoring in the final minute, only this time for a 3-3 draw.

well earned tie. Brampton found the net early in the first period, but Brad Norton put in the equalizer, assisted by Jordan Cole, as the second period unfolded. Brampton who scored next, but Matt Gruenwald quickly put the Raiders back in the game, with helpers going to Kyle Termini and Gavin Aldridge. Brampton was able to put one past goalie Alex MacLeod at 8:02 of the third period and as the clock ran down, the Raiders put together a six-man rush.

With 20 seconds left in the game, Norton fired the tying marker assisted by Cole and Euteneier.

Atom II

The Georgetown Atom II Raiders hosted Milton recently, settling for a 5-5 draw, after trailing 5-1.

Sean Graham netted the first Raider goal from Blake Corrin and Steven Kogan.

With Milton up 5-1, Corrin scored unassisted. Then Corrin combined with Kogan and Doug Bell.

With the goaltender on the bench, Kogan scored from Andy Burns and Corrin.

Twenty seconds later Burns found the equalizer from Kogan and the comeback was complete.

The Raiders participated in a tournament in Shelburne on Dec 3.

The early morning game didn't seem to affect their play, earning a victory over Flesherton 6-3.

Jay Richardson, Kogan, Corrin, Lucas Arnold, Jimmy Presant and Danny VanHaastrecht scored for the Raiders. Earning assists were Presant, Jeffrey Knowles, Corrin (2), VanHaastrecht and Byron Jacome.

The Raiders second game had them pitted against a strong Alliston squad. Alliston opened the scoring before Richardson tied the score picking up a back-hand pass from Corrin. Alliston regaining the lead before the frame ended and added two more for a 4-1 win, eliminating the Raiders.

Major Atom

The Sports Unlimited Atom Raiders participated in a tournament in Belleville last weekend, advancing to the semi-finals before bowing in defeat.

The Raiders finished first in their division with two wins and one tie in the preliminary round. The Raiders skated to a 7-3 victory over the York Toros on Friday night. The Raiders were down 3-2 at the end of the second period but came out with their skates smokin' in the third. Scoring for the Raiders were Billy McDonald (2), Thomas Stokes (2), Dan Walinga, Dustin McKnight and Brent Beaumont. Assists were earned by Walinga (3), Jeff Boyce (2), McKnight, McDonald, Mike Eichstedt, Scott Rostrup, Rusty Parsons and Andrew McGourty.

Game two had the Raiders pitted against the Ajax Knights. This game ended in a 3-3 draw. Stokes, McDonald and Eichstedt scored for the Raiders with Kevin Oulds, Boyce, Walinga, McDonald, McKnight and Stokes nabbing assists.

The Raiders edged the Richmond Hill Jaguars 2-1 in game three. The first period was scoreless with both teams vying for top spot in their division. Eichstedt put the Raiders on the scoreboard late in the second period with help from Oulds. McGourty and McDonald set up Walinga perfectly early in the third to give the Raiders a 2-0 lead. The Raiders shut their opponents offense down until the last minute of the game when Richmond Hills was able to sneak one by them.

In the semi-finals the Raiders met up with the York Toros again. This time the Toros came out on top with a 4-2 win. With the game tied 1-1 at the end of the second period it proved to be an exciting finish. Scoring for Georgetown in this game were Oulds with an unassisted marker and Beaumont with help from Stokes. Matt Knoepfli, Brett Velten and Vince Burke played hard during the tournament. Superb goaltending by Donnie Lane and Kevin Bokowski earned them MVP honors during the tourney. Stokes showed lots of hustle to earn MVP honors twice.

Minor Peeewe

In the past two weeks the Georgetown PDS Minor Peeewe Raiders played six league games winning four and dropping two.

Game results were: Milton 3 - Georgetown 2, Georgetown 8 - Chinguacousy 2, Georgetown 3 - Oakville 1, Burlington 4 - Georgetown 1, Georgetown 5 - Brampton 1, Georgetown 5 - Orangeville 2.
