Vehicles totalled

A car and a van were totalled and both drivers taken to Georgetown Hospital by ambulance early Wednesday morning, police report. A 1991 Ford van was heading south on the Eighth Line and was turning left into a driveway when it was struck by a 1992 Volkswagen. The van struck a hydro pole, which snapped, police said. The driver of the van was charged with making an unsafe turn.

Man charged

A 21-year-old Milton man was arrested Wednesday and faces several charges after someone went into the Bank of Nova Scotia in Acton last September with a pass book and withdrew $400 from an account, police report. The bank, believing the bank book was stolen, asked police to become involved. The Milton man was charged with fraud, forgery, uttering forged documents and possession of property obtained by crime, police said.

Tack taken

Someone broke into a barn on 22 Sideroad sometime between Saturday and Wednesday, police said. The barn is a horse boarding facility and a quantity of tack was taken, including saddles, stirrups and pads. The total value was $5,400, police said.

Harassing phone calls

A 25-year-old Acton resident was charged Monday with uttering threats, making harassing phone calls and breach of probation, police said. A woman said she had a dispute with a man and soon after the calls started and threatening messages were left on her machine, police report.

Stereo stolen

A stereo was stolen from a 1988 Dodge parked at a residence on Hwy. 25 south of Acton overnight Sunday, police said. The window was smashed in order to gain entry. A 1987 Dodge van was entered as well as a 1988 Chrysler, but nothing was taken from either, police said.

CD player taken

A 1991 Honda parked on Sheldon Dr. was broken into early Monday morning and items worth $1,800 were removed, police said. The dashboard and interior light were damaged. A CD player, speakers, CDs, a flashlight and sunglasses were taken.

Thomas promoted

The Milton OPP's former community policing services officer will deal with the public and the media on a larger scale following a move up the ladder.

Acting Sgt. Dave Thomas now heads community policing services in the OPP's Greater Toronto Region service area as the regional facilitator.

The position took effect Nov. 1.

Acting Sgt. Thomas spent five years creating community-based policing programs and dealing with the local media and won numerous awards in the process.

Acting Sgt. Thomas' biggest honor during his time in Milton was being named police officer of the year by the Ontario Chamber of Commerce in 1994.

He also won an OPP Commissioner's Citation and National Policing Award for Traffic Safety in 1993. "I've been very lucky," he said.
