Minor novice Raiders claim first win

Minor Novices

The Georgetown Minor Novice "AA" Hockey Club skated to their first victory, 2-1 over Brampton at the Memorial Arena on December 7.

Chad Mercer scored the opening goal for Georgetown in the first period with an assist going to Corey Charlton. In the second period Kevin Greer scored on a penalty shot to put Georgetown ahead for good. Greer made no mistake firing a wrist shot into the top corner.

Kyle Oliver was awarded the 'Hard Hat' award by the Georgetown team.

Novice II

This past Saturday in Tri County action the Georgetown Referees Association Novice II Raiders battled against the league leaders in Acton. The Raiders performed well from the opening face-off.

After falling behind 2 to 0, Kees Bradley and Jordan Jacobs over-powered Acton in the offensive zone. With Adam McKnight parked at the side of the net, Bradley and Jacobs sharply relayed the puck to McKnight who slid it past the fallen goalie.

The Raiders continued to play well throughout with a strong showing from Ryan Fines, Scott Atkinson, Ryan Clost and Kyle Hulme. In all it was a respectable team effort even though they went down to defeat 4 to 1.

The following night the Raiders were back at home against Oakville. Even though the team seemed prepared for a win, it appeared that the Acton game took some steam out of their attack. Oakville continued to beat our Raiders to the puck and when it was over the visitors went home to Oakville with a 6 to 0 win.

Although the score was one-sided, fine performances were turned in by Chad Neville, Daniel Ples, Graham Knoepfli and Patrick Hall who deserve the recognition for their effort defensively.

James Mountford, Tyler

Paterson and David McNally continue to play well offensively, but this night belonged to Oakville goaltenders.

Minor Atoms

The Georgetown John Henderson Pro Shop Minor Atom "AA" Raiders squad met up with two tough teams again this week and came out on the losing side of the scoreboard twice.

On Dec. 5, Orangeville came to Memorial and had to play their best to beat Georgetown 4-2. The Raiders played extremely well, but could not get on the scoring sheet until the third period.

With Orangeville ahead 3-0, Matt Hilts was finally the Raider to find the net, assisted by Daryl Veltman. Five minutes later, Hilts again accepted a nice pass, from Thomas Elinesky this time, and went all the way in from the blue line to fire the second Georgetown tally in past the goalie. Orangeville put on the pressure and scored once more to ensure the win.

On Sat. Dec. 9, the Minor Atoms travelled to St. Catharines, but again went home with a 4-2 deficit.

Matt Gruenwald tipped the puck in, assisted by Daryl Veltman and Gavin Aldridge to open up the scoring. St. Catharines quickly answered with two goals, one on a power play, to end the first period.

With no scoring in the second period, both teams badly wanted the next goal.

Unfortunately, St. Catharines got another power play goal to go ahead 3-1 as the third period got underway. A nice drop pass from John Moxham to Kyle Termini, who fired one high over the goalie, put the game within reach for the Raiders.

However, St. Catharines managed to get one more shot past goalie Alex MacCleod to win the game 4-2.

Atom II

The Georgetown BDO Atom

II Raiders were shutout by Oakville last Sunday.

Penalty killing lines did a great job holding Oakville at bay as Dustin Boreland and Aaron Cardon shared the goaltending duties.

Oakville moved ahead 3-0 by the end of the first frame, and gained two more during the second. The Raider squad pulled a little tighter during the third to keep the period scoreless but Oakville took the game 5-0.

On Tuesday, the Atom II Raiders travelled to Erin. The Raiders were shutout for the second match this week.

Erin notched a single goal each period to claim the victory 3-0. Aaron Cardon manned the nets deflecting lost of shots.

Minor Peewees

In the past week the Georgetown PDS Minor Pee wee Raiders fared very well, not only beating their opponents, but also far outscoring them. They netted 19 goals in three games, while letting up only four.

Last Saturday, the Raiders travelled to Brampton and didn't allow the home squad an inch, blanking them out, 5-0. Mark Fantegrossi led the onslaught with a hat trick, while Alex Durham and Mike Boyle added a goal each. Assisting on the scoring plays were: Kyle Hotham (3), Shawn McCulloch (2), Mike Boyle, Ryan Field, and Ryan Busby. The shutout truly belonged to the whole defensive unit, as they all worked hard to keep shots down to a minimum. In net, Joe Garvey made some key saves.

The victory was especially sweet for Georgetown, as they tied Brampton for top spot in their Tri-County loop of eight centres.

On Monday night the Raiders battled a snow storm to get to St. Catharines, and then made it worth their while, dumping on them 7-2. St. Catharines was leading 2-1 midway into the second, before Georgetown tied it, and then added two more to close out the middle frame. The last two goals in the third sealed the win. Chris Henderson in net allowed only two goals against. Goal scorers were: Ryan Busby (2), Kyle Hotham, Ryan Field, Alex Durham, Brad Snow, and Graham McCulloch. Helping out were: Mark Fantegrossi (2), Tim Mansfield, Kevin Binsell, Shawn McCulloch, Mike Boyle, Nick Black, Daniel Roffel.

The next night the Raiders laced up against St. Catharines again for a back to back contest, this time on home ice. In a deja vu of the night before, the score turned out the same, 7-2 for Georgetown. This time, however, the Raiders led from just over one minute, and onwards for the entire game. They collected five unanswered goals before "St. Kitts" broke Joe Garvey's shut out late in the second period. Putting the puck in the net for Georgetown were: Kyle Holham (2), Mark Fantegrossi, Dan Roffel, Tim Mansfield, Nick Black and Ryan Busby. Assists went to: Ryan Busby (2), Kyle Hotham, Dan Roffel, Mike Boyle, Nick Black, Brad Snow, Ronny Larocque, Mark Fantegrossi and Kevin Binsell.

With only two games left before the Christmas break, the PDS Raiders' record stands at a merry 17-4-1.

Pee wee II

The Georgetown Chiropractic & Sports Injuries Centre Pee wee IIs Raiders dropped a decision to Oakville last Sunday evening.

Thomas Temple scored the Raiders only goal of the game, assisted by Mike Noonan only 14 secs. into the first period as the Raiders got off to a good start.

Oakville came back to go into the lead by the end of the first period however.

Even though it was a fast moving hockey game, the puck wouldn't go in for the Raiders as they went down to defeat to Oakville. Brendan Coates made some nice saves.
