MORE REP RESULTS...
Major Peewee
 The Georgetown Charley Fitzwhiskey Major Peewees have been hovering around the .500 mark all season. Heading into action in St. Catharines on Tuesday night the team boasted a 9-9-3 record. Would they come away ahead of the magic mark or a game below? The answer was neither as the Raiders settled for a 3-3 draw. The season series with St. Catharines now stands at 1-1-1. The Raiders never held the lead in this contest as they rallied three times to tie the score. St. Catharines took a lead early in the middle frame, only to have Peter Veltman tie the contest five minutes later as he took a pass from Bill Jackman and made no mistake. It took St. Catharines 30 seconds to retore the one-goal lead but Riley McAneney evened the contest from Greg Bidwell and Derrick Inscoe with nine seconds remaining in the middle frame. The host squad took the lead for the third time to open the final period but Veltman and McAneney combined, with Veltman pulling the trigger, to tie the contest for a third time. Both squads pressured for the equalizer but neither could bulge the twine for the winner. Matt Hess was solid between the pipes for the Raiders.
