655 In memoriam

FLEURY, GLENN ALLEN - April 16, 1966 - January 2, 1989.
In the hearts of those who loved him,
He always will be there.
Dad and Mom, Gillan and Family, Cameron, Leslie and Scott

HUMPHREYS, Freda and Bill - Lovingly remembered each day by The Humphreys Family.
A silent thought, a secret tear
Keeps their memory ever dear.
Time takes away the edge of grief
But memory turns back every leaf.

JACOBS - In loving memory of my Dear Grandson, Shane Alexander Jacobs who was taken from us suddenly on December 30th, 1991.

There is a flower in my garden of memories
That will bloom all through the years
It's entwined by love and memory
And watered by silent tears

Some memories make me smile
Some memories bring me pain
Sometimes I laugh, sometimes I cry
When I wander down memories' lane

Memories lane is a lovely lane
Where hearts are ever true
I wander down that lonely lane
Because it leads to you

You were very special
With a heart sincere and true
God took you home to Heaven
Because he loved you too

Many hearts were broken
Silent tears still flow
What it was to lose you
No one will ever know

A river of tears won't bring you back
Whatever to be, will be
But you shall bloom forever
In my Garden of Memory

Away in the beautiful hills of God
By the valley of rest so fair
Someday we know not when
We'll meet again up there

Written by Margaret King,
Shane's Grandmother

655 In memoriam

Jacobs, Shane Alexander - In loving memory of our dear son who passed away December 30th, 1991.

*Shane
There's a family who misses you sadly, in home where you used to be,
A family who wanted to keep you, but God willed it not to be.
We did not know that evening, what sorrow the next day would bring,
The bitter grief, the shock severe, to part with our son, whom we loved so dear.
You bid no one a last farewell, no chance to say good-bye,
You were gone before we knew it and only God knows why.
God gave us strength and courage, to face that dreadful blow,
But what it meant to lose you, no one will ever know.
When shadows of night have fallen and we are all alone,
In our hearts there comes a longing, if only you could come home.
We mourn for you in silence no eyes can see us weep,
But many a silent tear is shed, while others are asleep.
They say that hearts don't really break, dear God that isn't true,
The night that we lost you, Shane, our hearts, broke right in two.
Wrap your arms around him, Lord, and keep him in your Loving Care,
A few more steps, a few more years, and soon we'll meet him there.
Of all that life has given us, and all that's left to do
We will never know a greater gift, than the years we shared with you.*

Mom, Dad, Mike, Lisa and Dave

LAYTON, James - In loving memory of a dear father, who passed away January 1, 1975
He had a nature, you could not help loving
And a heart that was pure than gold
And to those who knew and loved him
His memory will never go cold.
To Mom:
I hope, I dream, I pray,
That you have found your way
Until we meet again.

Love always
Terry and Debbie
