THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

1. Don't answer the door in a hotel or motel room without verifying who it is. If a person claims to be an employee, call the front desk and ask if someone from their staff is supposed to have access to your room and for what purpose.
2. When returning to your hotel or motel late in the evening, use the main entrance of the hotel. Be observant and look around before entering parking lots.
3. Close the door securely whenever you are in your room and use all of the locking devices provided.
4. Don't needlessly display guest room keys in public or carelessly leave them on restaurant tables, at the swimming pool, or other places where they can be easily stolen.
5. Check to see that any sliding glass doors or windows and any connecting room doors are locked.
6. If you see any suspicious activity, please report your observations to the management.

Georgetown Children's Chorus

Chorus starts younger choir

A. Dale Wood, conductor of the Georgetown Children's Chorus, has announced the formation of a new choir for young children.

Currently the Children's Chorus has 100 members, aged 6-16, who sing in the choir's three divisions (Children's Chorus, Youth Choir and Performance Choir).

"We receive a lot of phone calls asking how soon we can take children," Wood explained. "Also, many of our choir members have siblings who see their brothers and sisters perform and can't wait to get in on the action. We have answered this need with a special Cherub Choir for youngsters aged 4, 5, and 6."

Choir administrator Lois Fraser agrees that many children are ready to sing at an early age.

"If you have a musical child, you know it very early. They can hold a tune at age 2 and they demonstrate a clear enthusiasm for singing. We want to provide a positive environment for these young singers to enjoy music."

By starting a separate choir for the younger ones, choir leaders feel they will be able to continue to challenge the age 7-11 group with more difficult harmonies.

The three choirs were very busy over the Christmas season with 10 public appearances in addition to four performances of a Christmas musical at the John Elliott Theatre.

"Yes, it was busy," says Wood, "but entertaining others is part of our mandate and the performance skills the children gained will be very beneficial in future."

With three choirs to choose from the members shared the outings and were able to keep their enthusiasm throughout the season.

For information on joining the Georgetown Children's Chorus call Lois Fraser 873-2750 (days) or 877-5545 (evenings).
