Atom II Raiders play impressive hockey

The BDO Atom II Raiders played some impressive hockey over the Christmas break in the Chinguacousy tournament.

The Raiders' first match had them pitted against the Chinguacousy Blues. Neither side gave up any goals throughout the first period. Second period had the Raiders first to light up the scoreboard at 6:56. Steven Kogan claimed the point with Jimmy Present and Lucas Arnold assisting. Ching tied the frame at one second left.

The third period had the Raiders taking control. Andy Burns notched the tie breaker at 7:47 with Kogan and Blake Corrin assisting. Corrin was next on the board at 4:20 with Burns and Kogan chipping in. Joel MacDonald lit the lamp at 2:35. Mike Zelek claimed the assist and helped close the game at 5-1. Dustin Boreland manned the Raider nets.

The Raiders second contest had them up against Brampton. Boreland played a fantastic game between the pipes to walk away with the shutout. Solid playing by the Raiders kept the first frame scoreless. With the Raiders putting on the pressure in the second period, Kogan opened the scoring at 4:43 with the help of Burns and Jason Richardson. Byron Jacombe sent one flying at 0:22 with Corrin and Burns notching the assists.

The third period had Present gaining the Raiders a three goal lead at 8:39. MacDonald and Jacombe paired up for the assists. Corrin Picked up the next Raider goal at 1:57 unassisted. Danny VanHaastrecht closed the game at 0:32 with Zelek taking the assist. Raiders dominated for a 5-0 victory.

The Raiders' third game had them matched against another Brampton team for the B division championship. The squad had the fans on their feet for the entire game. Fantastic, impressive passing and teamwork was displayed by the entire club.

Goaltender Aaron Cardon was back to cheer on teammate Boreland who showed excellent goaltending throughout the competition and tourney.

Corrin opened the game at 4:55 in the first frame. Burns and Arnold teamed up for the assists. Brampton got by to tie the score at 4:06 and take the lead at 3:19. Corrin played hard to shatter the lead at 2:44. Burns and Arnold combined for the assists. Brampton potted one at 1:14 to close the frame leading 3-2. Richardson showed great hustling to net the equalizer at 8:03 in the second frame. Pat Finn and VanHaastrecht pitched in for the assists. Solid teamwork by the Raiders kept the third period scoreless and sent the squad into a five minute overtime period.

The extra frame had the clubs playing five on five — no goalies. The Raiders had a few chances but Brampton beat them to the clock at 4:23 to claim a 4-3 victory.

Also contributing throughout the tourney with some great defensive work were Sean Graham, Jeff Knowles, Eric Thompson and Lanny Detoro.

MVP honors for the three games went to Blake Corrin, Mike Zelek and Steven Kogan.

Minor Novice AA Raiders reach tourney semi-finals

Minor Novice AA Raiders put three consecutive wins together in Milton's 22nd annual Beaver Tournament Dec. 26-30.

Georgetown Minor Novice AA opened the tournament with a barn burner of a game defeating Kitchener 2-1.

After a scoreless first and second period, Mike Clarizio opened the scoring for Georgetown unassisted from the point at the 6:23 mark of the third period.

With the score knotted at 1-1, Mike Carter scored the winning goal assisted by Chad Mercer and Corey Carlton at the 2:40 mark of the third period.

MVP tournament selection for Georgetown was Ryan Torres who also won the the Hard Hat Award.

In the second game against Cooksville, A.J. Syme opened the scoring for Georgetown at the 9:12 mark of the third period, assisted by Chad Mercer.

Kevin Greer brought the crowd to their feet with his outstanding end-to-end rush to score at the 6:39 mark unassisted. Sean Logan finished off the scoring at the 4:16 mark assisted by Corey Carlton. Final score was Georgetown 3- Cooksville 0. MVP tournament selection was Kevin Greer.

In the third game the Raiders skated to a well deserved solid offensive victory winning 5-1 against Erindale.

Major Novice Raiders win on Christmas Break

The Georgetown McNally Construction Major Novice Raiders won games against Brampton, Chinguacousy, and Milton in recent Tri-County hockey action. On Dec. 22 Brampton gave up a 2-0 lead and allowed the Raiders to score three unanswered goals in the third period to take the game 3-2.

Mark Boycott scored twice for Georgetown with Kevin Field chipping in for a single marker. Field nabbed two assists with Tim Walinga, Shawn Dennie and Travis Bland adding single helpers.

The Raiders gave Chinguacousy the blues on December 23 as they trounced their opponents 7-0. Goaltenders Chad Mercer had a hattrick with all three goals assisted by Mike Carter. Other scorers were Sean Logan, assisted by Kyle Oliver, and Mike Carter, unassisted. MVP was Jordan White for his outstanding goaltending with the Hard Hat Award going to Michael Clost.

In the semifinals Georgetown ran out of gas and lost to Meadowvale 3-0.

MVP tournament selection for this game was Jeffrey Gribbon, the goaltender who held Meadowvale at bay for half the game.

It was a great streak three wins in a row and a very positive tournament experience for the "little big guys" to reach the semi finals.

Josh Hunt and Chris McCulloch enjoyed the shutout. Walinga scored a hattrick for the Raiders, Boycott lit the lamp twice while Colin Lumb, Bland and Bradley Torres added one goal a piece. Assists were earned by Matt Chisolme (2), Matt Velten (2) Peter Tregunna (2), Bland (2) Nick McLaughlin, Torres, Dennie and Lumb. Dan Slihas played a terrific game on defence.

Home ice was hot for the Raiders on January 2 as the Raiders started the New Year on a winning note defeating Milton 5-1. Bland and Boycott each grabbed two goals and an assist with Lumb adding the other Georgetown marker. Field and Tregunna chipped in for the helpers.

The Raiders participated in the Silverstick tournament in Chinguacousy during the Christmas break and although they did not advance to the finals they proved to be worthy contenders. Scoring for Georgetown in the three games played were Walinga (2), McLaughlin, Chisolme, and Boycott. Assists were earned by Aaron Kirk (2), McLaughlin (2), Walinga, Lumb, Torres and Bland. Walinga, Bland and McCulloch picked up MVP honors during the tourney for their excellent playmaking and goaltending. Velten, Walinga and Hunt showed their ability as they won the 2-on-2 skills competition in the Novice AA division.
