Share the tobogganning hill

Dear editor:

I would like to take this opportunity to publicly thank the anonymous persons who had the kindness to help my son on Boxing Day, Dec. 26. While riding his brand new GT Snowracer at Cedarvale Park, he was injured and required some attention.

A kind person called us to let us know that he had been hurt and that an ambulance had been called. Unfortunately, I was busy with our infant son, and did not get to the phone before the answering machine took over. I would like to thank the police officers who responded and the ambulance attendants. I am sorry I did not get your names at Emergency. The kind gentleman who called Emergency to check on our son, thank you for your help.

To the individual who thought it was cool to throw your snowboard in my son's path, I sincerely hope your parents never have to go through the panic and upset that we did that day as a result of your pure ignorance.

My son is fine, his leg was not badly injured and he will gain the confidence to go back and have some more fun. I only hope he has the courage to point you out to me the next time he sees you because I will make sure someone is held responsible for your actions. You could have seriously injured someone.

I have spoken to several parents since this incident and have heard countless stories of hooligans at the park acting like they own the hill. Please think about it before you try to harm someone else for no apparent reason.

Halton Hills companies are thanked

Dear editor:

On behalf of the Halton Employment Assessment Centre and the North Halton Association for the Developmentally Handicapped I would like to express our appreciation to the Georgetown and Acton companies who provided work experiences in 1995.

Acton Jr. Y Child Care Centre, Andy's Family Dining and Pizzeria, DDH Distribution Services, Halton Hills IGA, Pizza Hut, Acton Public Library, Dairy Queen, Georgetown Public Library, Harvey's Restaurant and Wildwood Manor Ranch.

It is only through the support and understanding exhibited by community employers, that individuals with developmental delay can have the opportunity to display their abilities in non-sheltered environments.
