

Acton ministries unite

In order to celebrate the week of Christian Unity, the Acton Ministerial Association will host its third annual community service on Sunday, January 28, 10:30 a.m. at the Acton Legion. The churches of Acton look forward to another great time of praise and worship of our Lord and Saviour.

This year's guest preacher is Dr. Joel Nederhood, host of the Christian radio ministry, Back To God Hour, and of the television ministry, Faith 20.

Dr. Nederhood was born and raised in Michigan. He received his undergraduate degree at Calvin College, and then spent two years in the U.S. Army. Following his graduation from Calvin Seminary in 1957, he earned his doctorate at the Free University of Amsterdam. Dr. Nederhood joined the staff of the Back To God Hour in 1960 and, since 1965, has directed the worldwide activities of the broadcast organization.

He has written several books including God is Too Much, The Holy Triangle, and Promises, Promises, Promises.

"This service has proved to be a blessing to everyone who attends. When you get upwards to 700 people together singing and praying and worshipping God it's an experience you'll not soon forget," said Rev. Emrys Jenkins, president of the Acton Ministerial. "As well as good preaching we'll have a mass choir made up of all the Acton church choirs and lots of inspirational congregational singing."

For the children there is a worship celebration especially designed for them. This year we welcome the puppet troupe, J.A.M. (Jesus and Me Ministries). All children are invited to come and sing and cheer as we follow the adventure of Randy the Raccoon.

Nursery care is provided for the very young.

The morning promises to be filled with praise and glory to our God. If you need a ride to this event please call any of the Acton clergy. Be sure to arrive early for the best seat.

Discussion on violence on TV

Richard Landau, executive producer and network censor at Vision TV, Canada's national faith network, has been invited to address the issue of children and violence on television.

His talk takes place Wednesday, January 24 in the Gallery of the Halton Hills Cultural Centre at 7:30 p.m. There is no admission and refreshments will be provided.

Landau will address how one can define what constitutes violence and how to respond without creating limitations on freedom of speech.

This talk is the third in a series of discussions on raising children, offered by the local Baha'i community.

On Jan. 31, 7:30 p.m. at the same location, an informal discussion is being organized for those who wish to further explore issues raised at Landau's presentation.
