Some teams shorthanded

No change in Halton League standings for last Monday's efforts.

Several teams were shorthanded, Royal Pizza in particular, having only four players in attendance. The eventual loss of 2-11 to Brackys Fat Bunch is, therefore, not entirely unexpected. Alan Clarke and George Wallis were the sole points winners for Pizza and Wallis closed 104 into the bargain. Brad Youmans had a huge night with five 140s and a 135 scoring success, totalling sixteen points for the night.

Legion Three maintain their lead with a 9-5 win over Charleys Two. Legion Two defeated Time Out One by the same 9-5 score, a little bit of a surprise. Legion One defeated Time Out Two, also 9-5. Brackys Tapsters took out McGibbon, both shorthanded, by 9-4. Another players shortage match resulted in Charleys One knocking off Brackys Brew Crew by 8-5. Legion Three's lead is now a whopping thirty six points, they are unlikely to be caught by second place Charleys One, far less anyone else.

Mike Pepper scored 180 and Caroline Vallance 146 with high finishes from Rob Marrows (115), Hugh Smid (105) and the aforementioned George Wallis.

Dan Dobreen, Dave McNeilly, Ian McDonald and Bob Engleby each have something in common. Their names were pulled from the hat in the monthly draw - they did not win anything as they had not entered this month. Steve Jennings, league treasurer, was the fortunate recipient as a result.

on Saturday May. 11

The Acton Legion is hosting a Super Bowl Day open doubles tourney prior to the big game at an entry fee of $5 per player. The game will be shown and there is food provided at an additional cost. The date is January 29.

Wednesday at the McGibbon continued for the Industrial League.

Leaders Gasketman swallowed Bullsitters by the maximum score of 11-0. Second placed New Dream Team and third placed Woodchuckers both won by identical scores of 8-3; over Panthers and Independents respectively. In the other match Bossman defeated Teddy Bears by 7-4. Teddy Bears stay in fourth place ahead of Bossman.

Chris Scutt scored two 180s and opened four sets for a goodish showing. Brad Youmans and Ian McDonald both opened with 120. Other high starts came from Mike Hope (102), Jim Franks and Jeff Richardson (101), and Paul Kavanagh, Chris Scutt and Dave Scutt with 100 each. Jim Franks opened seven, Kevin Newnes five, with several players starting four each. Stan Rhynold led the finishes with four and the highest close of the night went to Paul Kavanagh with 89. Mind you, someone who shall remain nameless almost close out a large three figure finish.

Attention: Jeanette Cox

Dear Jeanette,

As you know, I operate Sharon Anderson Accounting Services in Ballinafad and for the past two years I have been one of the sponsors of the Income Tax related pages which appear in the Independent/Free Press in February, March and April.

When I first decided to use newspaper advertising, I was unsure as to whether or not I would even recover my costs and I approached the decision with some hesitation. I have been pleasantly surprised as the new business generated has more than offset the cost. Often, a client who has responded to the advertisement has passed on my name to friends and family who have also become clients. As a result, my income tax related business has increased by about 30% in the last two years. You can be sure that I will be back again this year.

You and the staff of the Independent/Free Press have always been a pleasure to deal with. Everyone has been professional, pleasant and most helpful. Keep up the good work!

THE BAHÁ'Í FAITH FROM A-Z

FAITH

Faith has been described as a fewness of words and an abundance of deeds. But moreover it is the satisfaction of both mind and heart in one's deepest beliefs about life.
