Theft from cars
Police believe three thefts from cars overnight Monday may be related. Someone took some cassette tapes and change from one car on McIntyre Cres. and a cellular phone from another car on the same street. Two cassette tapes were taken from a Pontiac on Sargent Rd. the same night, police said.

Hit and run
A car parked at the Georgetown Marketplace Mall from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 17 was damaged along the right side. Police believe another car struck the 1990 Chevrolet, resulting in $1,000 damage.

Police Blotter

Stereo stolen
A stereo was stolen from a 1993 Nissan parked on Corey Circle, Georgetown overnight Monday. It was worth $350, police said.

Car dented
A Guelph resident had her 1991 Volkswagen damaged while it was parked at Robert Little School at noon Wednesday, police said. Someone in a red vehicle struck the passenger side, denting the car and scraping the paint.

Severe damage
A 1987 Plymouth was severely damaged Saturday night when it struck a parked car on Wallace St. near Perth St., Acton at 10 p.m. The parked car sustained moderate damage, police said. No one was taken to hospital, but an Acton man was charged in the accident.

Store break-in
Someone broke into a Guelph St. store at 3 a.m. Thursday. Police were called to the scene by an alarm company and when they arrived, the front door glass was broken. A glass display case had been broken and three cameras as well as other equipment worth an estimated $1,600 had been taken.
