

Annual Paterson darts tourney set for February 17

By ALEX TOUGH
Darts Report

The Ed Paterson Memorial Annual Tourney for doubles is definitely set for Saturday, February 17 at the Georgetown Legion.

The date clashes with the Legions' zones shoots for four person teams, which takes place at defending champions - Acton Legion. There were problems obtaining open dates, I understand. Anyhow, the entry fee for the Paterson is $40 per team, of which $5 goes to the Heart and Stroke and the remainder towards the prizes.

There will be the usual side events, and draws, during the day and probably the dance in the evening. The Georgetown Legion is authorized to donate a four figure sum to the foundation. Registrations may be given to Alex Tough, Dave Paterson (873-6380) and Grant Richardson (877-9241).

The Industrial league held the tems triples tourney with a fair turn out taking part.

The round robin format was used to produce four sets of semi-finalists. Gasketman, comprised of Jeff Richardson, Terry Hancock and Mike Hope won their section and met second placed, from the other section, Woodchuckers "B" - Nail Olmstead, Russ Hillier and Hugh Smid. Gasketman won through. Woodchuckers "A", Mike Pepper, Larry Hunt and Mike Vernon met New Dream Team "A", Dennis Thorogood, Brian Hicks and Bruce Hope and the Woodchuckers Male Chauvinists Club (as they design themselves) made it to the finals. The final was an exciting contest with the 2-1 result going to Woodchuckers in a close finish.

Legion Three continued its domination of the Halton league in the 12-2 win over McGibbon. Charleys One had quite a tussle before dispatching Brackys Three (Fat Bunch) by 8-6. Time Out One scraped through 8-6 over short handed Brackys Brew Crew (Shaky Burnett has a broken ankle and Gil Deveaux is recovering from a heart attack). Legion One slip into fourth spot despite losing 6-8 to Charleys Two. Legion Two handed down an 11-3 loss to Brackys Tapsters. Royal Pizza came through with flying colours to win 8-6 over Time Out Two.

Finally, the George & Dragon is to host a Saturday afternoon Blind Draw Doubles tourney on a weekly basis at $5 per player with a 60/40 split of the entry to first and second places. Play starts at 2 p.m. sharp.
