The Lorne Scots Pipes and Drums entertained the crowd at the Robbie Burns Dinner and Dance at the Ballinafad Community Centre last Saturday evening.

Burns supper a success

Coming from Ancaster, London, Toronto and Kitchener was no small feat for those attending the ninth annual Robbie Burns Dinner and Dance at the community centre this past Saturday evening.

Snow accumulation and high winds throughout the day made driving hazardous at times. For the more than 150 in attendance, the evening's entertainment was a wonderful way to pass the winter storm.

Brian Arsenault served as the emcee with Alyson Arsenault as the evening coordinator. The duo sang Amazing Grace beautifully. Don McEachern piped in the Haggis carried by Jim Orton. The address to the Haggis was given by Ewan MacDonald. Marg Jamieson gave the Scottish Grace.

Then it was time for that most delicious roast beef dinner. For the more adventurous, a serving of haggis proved to be rather tasty.

As this year is the 200th anniversary of Robert Burns' birth date, dessert came in the form of a large cake, decorated with a piper and other Scottish memorabilia.

Throughout the rest of the evening, there was Scottish line dancing, sing-a-longs, waltzing, and soloists. Alyson Arsenault sang Danny Boy. Brian Arsenault sang Maggie, especially for Marg Jamieson.

The guest soloist was Cheryl MacDonald. Accompanist was Millie Smith.
