

Gardeners invited to attend annual Toronto flower show

Birds will be singing the sweet sounds of spring at the Garden Club of Toronto's 41st Flower Show, running from February 28 to March 3, at the Civic Garden Centre.

Under the shade of the apple tree freshly painted picket fences and verandahs will be set up to invite novice and expert gardeners alike to view gardens, flower arrangements and horticultural displays.

All to reflect the return to the "Simple Pleasures" way of life.

Nestled among the birdhouses will be: • gardens designed by outstanding professional gardeners • a junior gardeners pleasure featuring sunflower, colourful kites, sand boxes and a "pizza garden" • daily demonstrations and informative talks by noted specialists in a number of areas • magnificent floral arrangements and horticultural entries • a celebrity event starring high profile

Canadians invited to create and complete a flower arrangement (a very popular innovation last year). Come and vote for your favourite celebrity.

Colourful flower filled window boxes and arbours will adorn the halls of the Civic Garden Centre where awards for gardening, flower arranging and horticulture will be presented.

The proceeds from this years show will be used to create a teaching garden for children on the grounds of Edwards Gardens at the Civic Garden Centre.
