Sabres' fire doused by Bengals in Georgetown Bantam Tourney

The Acton Firefighters had their fire doused by the Coronation Bengals Tuesday afternoon at the 36th annual Georgetown International Bantam Tournament.

With a two-game split already behind them, the Sabres were facing a must-win to advance situation in their third round-robin contest. Up against a powerhouse D division club, Acton was blanked 7-0.

The Bengals struck early and often en route to their triumph. They jumped out to an early 3-0 lead by first-period's end and then added two more goals in the final two frames.

The Sabres came up on the other end of a shutout in their opening game Friday night, which kicked off the tournament. Facing some North Halton opposition, they turn aside a challenge by the Milton Winterhawks and won 4-0.

Backstopping the Sabres with a flawless performance was Thomas Wolfer while Marc Forbes led the attack with a goal and two assists.

Captain Bob Brooks scored once and added an assist, with Jason Christopher and Chris Yeatman counting the other markers.

Drawing assists were Rob Bonus, Jeff Newman and Mark Vaseruk.

Acton scored once in the first, potted a pair in the second and added another late in the third.

Acton's offense dried up a bit in game two, which cost them a 4-1 loss to the Vaughan Rangers. Craig Foster worked a flawless first period, but was then beat in the dying seconds of the middle frame and was shell-shocked for three goals in the third.

Yeatman's second goal of the tournament cut Vaughan's lead to two early in the third, but his crew couldn't put much more together come crunch time.

Assisting on Acton's lone marker were Forbes and Brooks.

The other three local teams had only played one of their three games by press time, with two gaining wins and the other behind the eight ball with an early loss.

The Halton Hurricanes jumped out to a big start in A division round-robin play with a 6-2 victory over Kitchener.

Sean Robertson was steady between the pipes in Halton's win. Jamie Sweetland tallied twice and Brad Hooper, Robert MacLeod, Gord Willimse and Kyle Emery added singles.

MacLeod provided some big setups as well and collected three assists while Sweetland had two and Emery, Neil McDowell, Mike Lupien, Jeff Chaisson and Corey Broussard posted single helpers.

The Georgetown minor bantams, in D division, edged Oakville 3-2 — thanks to Rod Heinz's game winner late in the third. Also counting goals were Dan McBride and Mike Rovere.

Working the net was Tyler Pearce.

The Georgetown major bantams went behind the eight ball early with a tough 4-0 loss to Westhill. Second period play provided the majority of the damage for the Raiders as Westhill added three goals to their early lead and cruised to victory the rest of the way.

Round-robin play wrapped up Friday, with playoff action held yesterday. Division finals, semi-finals and the Grand Championships will be held today (Sunday) at Alcott Arena.
