Major Novice Raiders advance to OMHA semi-finals

Seven Selects

The Georgetown Re/Max seven year old select Raiders had what could be described as a Jekyll and Hyde weekend in their continuing journey through tri county playoff play.

On Saturday the Raiders lost a tough game to Orangeville 4-1 and on Sunday the Raiders steamrolled Milton 6-0.

Defenceman Mitchell Thompson scored the lone goal against Orangeville after he jumped into the offensive zone and fired a nice wrist shot into the corner.

The 6-0 win over Milton was probably the boys finest performance to date.

On the offensive side of the puck, Raymond Martin and Jeff Bayley each scored twice. Single goals came off the sticks of Peter Bailey and Michael LaRose. Larose also chipped in with three assists. Earning helpers for the Raiders were Chris Darling, Matt Turner, Alex Bulgarelli and Cory McLaughlin. All three Raider lines combined to pepper the Milton goalie with excellent chances.

Major Atom

The Sports Unlimited Major Atom Raiders played some great hockey in their OMHA semi-final series against Oakville but it wasn't enough as they went down in defeat after playing four tough games.

The Raiders won game one of the series, with the Rangers winning the next two. Facing elimination last Monday at Alcott Arena, the Raiders battled back from a three goal deficit, but time ran out and they lost a 3-2 heartbreaker to end their quest for the OMHA crown.

Scoring for the Raiders in games two, three and four were Kevin Oulds with pair and Dustin McKnight and Billy McDonald with single markers. Dan Walinga picked up a pair of assists, while McDonald and Brent Beaumont added single helpers.

Back in Tri-county playoff action, the Raiders lost 6-4 to Brampton and edged St.

Catherines 4-3. Scoring for Georgetown in those games were McDonald 2, Walinga 2, Beaumont, Oulds, Thomas Stokes and Jeff Boyce. Assists were earned by McKnight 3, Oulds 2, Stokes 2, Walinga, McDonald, Boyce, Brett Velten and Kyle Termini.

Goaltending by Donnie Lane and Kevin Bokowski was outstanding during the entire season. Also contributing to the Raiders successful season were Matt Knoepfli, Mike Eichstedt, Rusty Parsons, Andrew McGourty, Vince Burke and Scott Rostrup.

Thank you to the coaching staff of John Boyce, Brian Beaumont, Charlie Knoepfli and Dodie McDonald.

Major Novice

The McNally Construction Major Novice Raiders have advanced to the OMHA semi-finals by shutting out the Orangeville Flyers in game six of the quarter-finals.

It was the Raiders who came out flying on Tuesday night at Alcott Arena in this deciding game of the series. Josh Hunt played an outstanding game between the pipes for the Raiders as did the defensive team of Travis Bland, Peter Tregunna, Danny Slihas and Shaun Dennie.

A breakaway goal by Mark Boycott at 4:17 of the first period gave the Raiders the momentum they needed. Aaron Kirk made a nice pass to set up the goal. Bland gave Georgetown a two-goal cushion at 2:40 of the second with an unassisted marker. Boycott scored his second of the game at 12:37 of the third with help from Matt Velten. Slihas put the icing on the cake 30 seconds later after being set up by Kirk and Dennie.

The Raiders now play Oakville in their bid for the OMHA crown. The Raiders also shut out Burlington in recent Tri-county playoff action.

Hunt and Chris McCulloch shared duties in the net earning the shutout.

Scoring for the Raiders were Tim Walinga, Kevin Field, Kirk and Boycott. Garnering assist were Velten with two, Nick McLaughlin, Kirk, Boycott, Slihas, Walinga and Bland. Bradley Torres, Matt Chisolme and Colin Lumb have been playing tough for the Raiders during these playoff games.

Atom 2 Raiders

The BDO Atom 2 Raiders played two exhibition games against Brampton this week. Losing the first 2-1 and winning the second 4-2.

Aaron Cardon and Dustin Boreland manned the nets for the evenly matched first game. Joel MacDonald scored an unassisted goal for the lone Georgetown marker.

Georgetown played some great hockey in the second match. In the first period Derek Naylor and Jeff Knowles scored with assists going to Andy Burns and Naylor. Byron Jacome scored the third goal of the game the Raiders with an assist going to Jason Richardson. The final goal came off the stick of Richardson with Naylor picking up another assist.

Blake Wilson and Dustin Boreland played fantastic between the pipes to lead the team to victory.

The BDO Atom 2 Raiders closed their tri-county playoffs with losses to Orangeville 7-3, Acton 7-1, and Fergus 7-1.

Goal scorers against Orangeville were Lucas Arnold, Jason Richardson and Joel MacDonald. Assists went to Richardson, Pat Finn, Jimmy Presant and Blake Corrin. Aaron Cardon was kept busy in goal.

In the loss to Acton the lone Raider goal was scored by Byron Jacome with assists from Finn and Richardson. Dustin Boreland manned the net for this game.

Mike Zelek's goal ruined Fergus' shutout with assists coming from Steven Kogan and MacDonald.

Minor Peewee

The Georgetown PDS Minor Peewee Raiders are still in the OMHA playoffs. They beat Orangeville, 3-1, last Saturday night, to take the quarter-final series in the sixth and deciding game.

For the Raiders, Ryan Field scored in the first period from the point with a low shot. Ronny Larocque got the credit for a wayward, bouncing puck that finally inched across the goal crease in the dying seconds of the middle frame. Ryan Busby notched the insurance marker with less than two minutes left in the game.

The Raiders opened up their semi-final series against the Bramton Maroons on Tuesday night at home in Alcott with an exciting 2-0 win. The first period ended scoreless, while Mike Boyle hit the scoreboard early in the second with a blistering slap shot over the goalie's glove, assisted by Kevin Binsell.

Later in the period, Graham McCulloch took a pass from Nick Black and then hit the 5-hole scoring the Raiders' second and final goal. Donnie Lane minded the net very well for the Raiders allowing only one goal in two games.

Pee Wee 2

A disappointing series of losses for the Pee Wee 2's in both OMHA finals against Oakville and in the continuing tri-county playoffs.

The Raiders lost 6-2 to Oakville in a game that initially saw good action from both teams. Brendan Coates made some terrific saves in goal for the Raiders. Raider goals were scored by Mike Noonan and Thomas Temple with an assist going to Adam Kay.

The final OMHA game versus Oakville saw the Flyers take the game 7-3. The Raiders played hard but came up short. Goals were scored by Noonan, Kyle McKenna and Chad Fleming. Brendan Louth played well in goal.

In tri-county action against Milton the Raiders held their own with a 1-1 tie until midway through the second period, as Justin Normore netted the marker assisted by Bill Campbell. The Raiders pocketed two more goals in the third, but fell 4-3. Sean Reynolds and Allan Harvey did the scoring while Normore and Ryan Norton recorded assists.
