BROWN, Elizabeth - In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother who passed away, March 18, 1986
Gone are the days
We used to share
But in our hearts
You are always there
As time unfolds another year
Memories keep you ever near
Silent thoughts of time together
Hold memories that will last forever
Always loved and missed by your son Tom and family.

WALKER, Florence - In loving memory of my mother who passed away, March 17, 1994.
In tears we saw you sinking
We watched you fade away
Our hearts were almost broken
You fought so hard to stay
God saw you getting tired
When a cure was not to be
So He closed his arms around you
And whispered, "Come to Me"
Your golden heart stopped beating
Your gentle hands at rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best
But when we saw you sleeping
So peacefully free from pain
We could not wish you back again
To suffer that again.

Your eldest, Allan

KA-BOOM! YOU JUST GOT HIT BY THE POWER OF NEWSPAPER

You never saw it coming. You were thumbing through the paper, minding your own business. When suddenly this ad caught your eye. And your interest. Newspapers don't read themselves, you know. It takes two, a newspaper AND YOU!

That's why newspaper is such a powerful advertising medium. It requires your full attention and complete concentration. The radio can be playing to nobody in particular, and the TV can be on in an empty room. But when people turn to their paper, they turn there with interest. Which means that's where your advertising message needs to be.

With all the choices available, it's difficult deciding how best to advertise your business. But everything becomes a little simpler when you remember one rule...
