

Georgetown youths face variety of charges

Three male Georgetown youths are facing charges as a result of an investigation by District One uniform officers and the Street Crime Unit.

The youths, one 14, and the other two 15, have been charged in relation to a variety of break and enters and thefts of money, items and personal documents that occurred in Georgetown since last fall.

Police say some of the incidents the charges relate to include the theft of an undisclosed amount of cash from an office in a Guelph St. store, and an occasion where a youth, who identified himself with a false name, volunteered to shovel a driveway, asked to use a washroom, and later a wallet was discovered missing.

Police report in another incident a youth approached a resident claiming to be a replacement paper boy, asked to use a washroom and later a bottle of liquor was missing.

On another occasion a wallet was removed from the locker room at Georgetown Indoor Pool.

Other incidents include the entry of homes on Moore Park. Cr. and Kennedy Rd. in which money and costume jewelry were removed.

One of the youths is charged with theft, break and enter and breaching probation. He was held for a bail hearing.

Another youth was charged with break and enter and theft, and possession of stolen property.

The third youth was charged with break and enter and theft, theft, breaching probation and breaching his undertaking. Both of them are to be in Milton court on April 19.
