

Presbyterian Church youth groups participate in 30-hour famine

By LOIS ROONEY-GIURIN

Norval News

A very special evening of music and worship was held at Norval Presbyterian Church on Sunday, March 17. Lori Gemmell, harp and Steven Wassmansdorf, percussion, presented a unique and vibrant program of modern and traditional classics, newly arranged for harp and exotic percussion instruments. The evening was well attended as over 100 people came out to enjoy this talented duo.

Beaver show

Norval Presbyterian Church parking lot at 5:30 p.m. last Friday. They were en route to the 58th Annual Beaver Show held in Toronto at the Former Brockton High School. The driving was poor, but spirits were high and expectations were met. It was a most enjoyable show, and the Beaver Bible Class of the Westway United Church in Etobicoke must be commended for yet another appealing evening of variety entertainment.

30-hour famine

The Union and Norval Presbyterian Church Youth Group fasted for 30 hours last weekend, starting at noon on Saturday and ending with a potluck supper at 6 p.m. Sunday. They raised money for World Vision Canada, as well as public awareness of the problem of hunger. The young people were joined by St. George's Anglican Church Young Peoples Society. Participants were Mary-El Bond, Stephanie Christie, Elisha McGee, Audrey Lookman, Phil Elliott, Bethan Elliott, Ryan Latour, Paul Latour, Alissa Thurston and Emily Rosser. Special thanks to their chaperones and leaders: Robert Rosie, Marion Lookman, Ruth Alison, Janice Murray, Allan

Thompson, John Giurin and the many others that helped. Special thanks to the Norval Convenience Store who provided videos for their entertainment.

David Cardy mourned

The Norval community extends its deepest sympathy to the family of David "Junior" Cardy, who died on Monday, March 18 at his home. He was in his 65th year.

Correction

Mitch Dodd was reported as having coming third in his division in the OFFSA Wrestling championships. In fact, he placed fifth. Mitch is off mid-April to the Canadian Championships in Regina. Go for gold, Mitch!

Yard sale

Norval Presbyterian Church will hold a yard sale in early June. Start collecting those "treasures." More details to come.

Spring is sprung?

Pauline Gladstone reports that both snowdrops and crocuses have courageously poked their heads above the earth in her garden. We hope this is a sign of great things to come.
