Ronnie provides a Breath of Scotland

The Scottish are coming! Ron Coburn and his troupe of performers are about to breeze back into Georgetown. The Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital Volunteer Association hosts A Breath of Scotland, an evening of Scottish music, dancing, comedy and a lot of nonsense at the John Elliott Theatre, April 12, 8 p.m. Touring with Coburn this year are Ian Powrie, Scotland's legendary star of the fiddle, Jimmy Lindsay, champion of the Button Acordion, Isobel Stuart, singing personality, Alexander Cairns, musical director and Heather Bruce, a bonnie Highland dancer. Tickets are $15 per person and are available through the John Elliott Theatre Box office (877-3700). Thanks to Andrew Murray Motors for sponsoring the cost of the ticket sales. Proceeds go to the Hospital

Equipment Fund. The Georgetown District Hospital Volunteer Association welcomes guests to a reception in the Gallery after the final curtain. Complimentary coffee, punch and treats round out this traditional evening of enjoyment at The Ceilidh.
